■ STUDENTS phone home to tell their parents about their A-level exam results

Star-studded exam results

by Paul Crompton

IN A week filled with both joy and sorrow for students collecting their exam results Dorchester's Thomas Hardy School once again surpassed its previous pass rate – beating the national average.

As some failed to achieve their required A-level results others celebrated as the school surpassed its previous overall pass rate, reaching 99.1 per cent, nudging it above the national average of 97.6 per cent.

A total of 326 students took 1,007 exams, with 34 subjects having a 100 per cent pass rate, of this a total of 112 students gained the top A*/A grade.

This year's exceptional pass rate signified an increase of two per cent on the previous year's A*-C grades with 85.4 per cent of students achieving top marks.

Of those numbers 64 per cent of students taking Mathematics gained an A*/A grades and 32 per cent sitting the English Literature exams achieved A*/A grades.

Dr Iain Melvin, Headteacher of the school, said: "All of our students and staff should be congratulated upon another set of excellent results. These very high pass rates mean the school remains at the forefront of A-level results nationally and provides a high quality of education for all the students in its care. Indeed these are our best results ever, an increase on our regular exceptional performance"

This year also saw the national introduction of the A* grade – devised to challenge the top stu-

SINGING teacher Lauren Glover, 21, returned to Bridport earlier this year after three years spent studying music at Plymouth University.

Lauren has been performing in Bridport from an early age appearing at events such as the Bridport Charter Fair, in shows with "Zest" and "BOW" and most recently in local venues with her band "Lauren, Mike and Leigh".

Lauren also recently made the South West finals of Open Mic UK, a national music competition, with her guitarist Leigh.

Next week Lauren will be onstage with Bridport Musical Theatre Company for their latest production "42nd Street".

As well as being an assistant vocal coach for the show Lauren plays chorus girl "Diane Lorimer".

Despite being just 21 Lauren now has a BTEC diploma and BA(hons) degree in music and has recently set up her own private singing tuition business, as well as becoming Colfox School's peripatetic singing teacher.

"42nd Street" runs from August 30th to September 4th.

■ WHAT is your earliest memory of performing on stage?

The earliest memory that I have of performing was probably at a youth county talent show that took place at Bryanston.

■ WHAT instruments do you play?

I am mainly a vocalist but can also play the piano, which I use as a tool for song writing and teaching. I have recently bought a cello as I wanted the challenge of learning a new instrument and loved the tone of the cello.

■ CAN anyone learn to sing?

Yes, I believe so. They just need to have the right training, encouragement and determination to succeed. The more practice you put into it the better the results.

■ WHAT top tips would you give to help someone improve their voice?

You should work on your breathing to gain more control over your voice. Sing scales everyday, even if it's just briefly, and always before performing. Ensure that your posture is correct before singing.

■ WHAT is 42nd street about?

It is about a musical production called "Pretty Lady" which is being performed by a cast on Broadway. It is full of high-energy tap dancing numbers and showstopping songs including the famous numbers "Lullaby of Broadway" and "We're in the money".

■ WHAT are your favourite songs from the show?

"Shuffle off to Buffalo" as it is the big comedy number in the show and is fun to perform as well as watch. Also "42nd Street" because everyone takes part in the number and it's a really challenging dance number.

■ WHICH musician do you most admire and why?

Imogen Heap because not only is she a songwriter but she also records and produces all of her music. I also think her style of music is really unique. "Hide and Seek" is my favourite song by her.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ WHAT'S your favourite show you have appeared in?

"Little Shop of Horrors". I played the leading lady "Audrey" who was a really fun comedy role to play. Also the theatre group B.O.W gave a chance to young people like myself to take part in local shows and gain experience as a performer.

■ WHAT was the last CD you listened to and film you watched?

The album "We Sing, We Dance, We Steal Things." by Jason Moraz. The last film I watched was "The Aviator".

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party?

Johnny Depp, because he is my favourite actor and could imagine he would be a very interesting person. Regina Spektor as she is another singer/songwriter that I really admire and Vince Vaughan as he one of my favourite comedy actors.

■ WHAT other opportunities could Bridport offer young people?

When I was younger I gained lots of experience performing by taking part in the "Zest" events that were organised by the youth centre and performed at the Arts Centre. They gave young people the chance to perform live music with other young musicians and was also a very popular event for young people to go to. Also it gave them experience in setting up a gig including projection and artwork. I think it would be really good if an event like this was to be set up again as it would give young people in Bridport somewhere to go and most importantly experience in performing live music to an audience.

A-level students excel at Thomas Hardy

dents and help universities spot the best candidates – with the school achieving 11.6 per cent of the results at this level.

To get one, a student had to score an A overall, plus at least 90 per cent in each paper in the second year of the course.

Dr Melvin said the school was especially proud of its achievements in mathematics and science, which were quite exceptional and bucked all national trends.

He added the school: “Also continues to be one of the most successful state schools for entries to Oxford and Cambridge.”

By Paul Crompton

A point highlighted by the best performing student at the school, previously home tutored 6th former Hannah Sanderson, who won a place at Queens College, Cambridge after gaining four A* grades in chemistry, physics, mathematics and further maths.

In addition she gained a grade A in general studies and a grade B in critical thinking.

The school was also delighted with the number of students completing the two-year International Baccalaureate programme, which included some students maintaining the best grades worldwide.

Dr Melvin said: “The school prides itself upon its comprehensive intake and its determination to admit all students who will benefit from further education.

“Once again this has proven to be the case with 58 students gaining five, four or three A*/A grades or the equivalent at IB, a significant increase on last year, but perhaps more importantly, many other students achieving very impressive results in terms of their abilities.”

Nationally the pass rate for A-levels rose for the 28th year in a row, with 97.6 per cent of entries gaining an E or above, up from 97.5 per cent in 2009.

Home schooled student is off to Cambridge

A HOME tutored teenager is celebrating this week after securing a place at a top university after becoming the highest achieving A-level student at a Dorchester school.

■ HOME tutored Hannah Sanderson was the highest achiever at the Thomas Hardy School gaining four A*s at A-level

Thomas Hardy student Hannah Sanderson was offered a place at Queens College, Cambridge after gaining four A* grades in chemistry, physics, mathematics and further maths.

Hannah joined the Thomas Hardy Sixth Form in September 2008 after moving from Virginia, USA, where she was home tutored for her GCSEs.

Hannah travelled to England to stay with her Grandmother Sandra Simmons in Weymouth, to sit her GCSE exams and stayed on at Thomas Hardy for the next two years while studying for her A-levels.

In addition to her top results, the teenager, whose parents are both English but live in America, gained an A grade in general studies and a grade B in critical thinking.

Not content with the workload, Hannah also found time to become a deputy in the student union elections, followed a lunch-time course in sign language and was active in fund raising throughout the sixth form.

Mrs Simmons said: “She has always been a brilliant little girl incredibly positive and very focussed.

“She had a very good idea of what she wanted to do and she made a very bold decision to come and stay with us and study her A-levels.

“To make a decision like that shows an incredible strength of character. Whilst she was revising she was writing formulas on pieces of paper and leaving them around the house.

“Of course we are missing her now because she has gone back to America where she is working to help pay her fees when she starts at Queens in September.

“We are all incredibly proud of her.”

Deputy Head and Director of the Sixth Form Anthony Moore said: “Hannah is a very determined, likable, but self-effacing student who deserves her excellent results.

“We have no doubt that she will take full advantage of her study opportunity in Cambridge.”

Poundbury food outlets win top awards

DORCHESTER has been put on the gastronomic map with two outlets in the town heralded nationally as “great examples” of how small business should be run.

The Poundbury based businesses were given the awards in a national competition by the Garden Centre Association during their annual audit.

The Potting Shed deli cafe won the Best Garden Centre Food Hall, with The Engine Room Restaurant receiving second prize in the Restaurant Category.

Manager of The Potting Shed, Lucy Altuzarra, said: “We are so happy with this result. We are at the heart of the garden centre and feel very much part of the team here.

“We opened just over a year ago and now The Potting Shed is a place where people meet up regularly to shop and eat so we are going from strength to strength.”

The Potting Shed is the first deli cafe opened by Olives Et Al in a garden centre and is a combination of deli, local food store and café selling cheeses, charcuterie, croissants, pies, artisan bread and Olives Et Al’s own range of marinated olives, snacks and sauces.

Based in an old engine shed at Poundbury Gardens, The Engine Room Restaurant, was recognised for its locally sourced food.

Mike Burks, MD of the Gardens Group said The Engine Room was different from many garden centre restaurants and didn’t conform to all of the judging criteria, so to score highly in the Restaurant Category was a fabulous achievement.

He also commended both teams at the outlets saying they had worked tirelessly in growing the two businesses and the awards were credit to the hard work that was been put in.

Garden Centre Association judge Roger Crookes, said, “I was really impressed with The Potting Shed as it certainly wasn’t your typical garden centre food hall. It had a Mediterranean feel and the ambience really reflected the building and surroundings.

“It was a great example of how small businesses can get things exactly right. By not being too clever and getting the core product right, they are selling a great experience which customers want to repeat,”

Garden Centres in the area are divided into two categories depending on their turnover and the judging process every aspect of the Garden Centre from the products on offer, the condition of the car park, environmental policies, the quality of the customer experience and the overall team ethos.

Partnership banks its first million

A PIONEERING partnership between Dorset councils has chalked up its first £1million of savings for local people.

Four years ago West Dorset District Council and Weymouth & Portland Borough Council merged their revenues and benefits teams, the people responsible for collecting council tax and business rates, paying housing and council tax benefit and investigating benefit fraud.

Operating with fewer staff who now share the work, use the same IT systems and learn from each other, the new outfit has now saved ~£1 million.

Not only that, performance has increase significantly. This means, for example, that people who cannot afford to pay their rent or council tax due to personal hardship are getting the help they need more quickly than before.

Earlier this year Purbeck District Council joined the partnership.

Howard Legg, one of the councillors who monitors the partnership on behalf of Weymouth & Portland Borough Council, said: "Smarter working and more efficient systems have allowed us to smooth out any peaks and troughs in the workload, meaning people in West Dorset, Weymouth and Portland get a better, faster service."

Local will writer puts programme in perspective

A DORSET based will writer claims Panorama recent programme exposing unscrupulous will writers supported what he has always said - that a will is one of the most important documents a person will ever write and should be carried out by a qualified, person belonging to a regulated body.

Matt Walkden from MW Legal Services based in Weymouth, and the major online will writing website www.Wills.org.uk, is a member of the Society of Will Writers (SWW) the country's leading professional body for the will writing industry.

He said that the programmes focus on problems experienced by a small handful of people who had asked will writers to handle their probate masked the real issues people should be addressing.

"As with most documentaries of this type, the programme sought to suggest there is a major problem within the will writing industry by showcasing half a dozen examples - actually concerning probate administration rather than will writing - only one of which was proven to be a fraudulent case.

"The reality is that the SWW alone has 2000 members who write some 200,000 wills a year with hardly a problem. Our insurers have handled just 11 cases in the past 16 years.

"We work in an unregulated market not through choice but because successive governments have deemed it unnecessary to bring in regulation. However, the SWW would support regulation. The SWW has been on the Scottish consultation panel since 2006 and it supports the Scottish Government in its proposed regulatory plans.

"The simple truth though is that no amount of legislation will eliminate fraudulent behaviour in any industry. One of the will writers featured in the Panorama programme was, as the reporter admitted, a struck-off solicitor. The legal industry is clearly not immune then to the type of issue highlighted by the programme, but which seemed to suggest lay at the door of will writers.

"In any industry there will always be the occasional bad apple but this shouldn't cloud the key issue which, as the programme itself highlighted is that a will is a vitally important document which is best handled by a professional."

Matt can be contacted via his own website www.mattwalk.com or on 07736 014831.

Gardeners delight judges in competition

THIS year's unusually dry summer has left gardeners frustrated and disappointed, so judges didn't know what to expect when they went round to look at the entries in this year's Magna Housing Association gardening competition.

"Watering has seemed to be a way of life, and very hard work," said David Downton, from Dorchester Horticultural Society, who judged the contest with Magna residents John Foot, who has won the competition several times in the past, and Kevin Parry, who is vice-chairman of the association's Community Connections residents' group.

"It seemed a daunting task, to fit in the many entrants spread from Crewkerne to Lyme Regis in the two days allocated for judging. But, luckily, we had the services of Ken Bodycombe, from Magna's community development team, who was a judge last year.

"He did us proud. His rapport and friendship with entrants helped make the event enjoyable and educational."

The judges were amazed by the lovely gardens they saw in all categories.

"Colour, extraordinary use of space and creativity, reflected the dedication of the gardeners," David said, and added that gardeners who look after communal plots deserved a special mention.

Mrs E Malcolm and Mrs P Arney from Fairfield, Chickerell, who won the communal gardens category, were awarded the John Foot Cup.

"Besides the gardeners, we met some great characters who not only talked with great enthusiasm about their creations, but also introduced us to their hobbies and interests, from a 'designer blue painted chicken house,' to the most beautiful 'working ferrets' we had ever seen!" he said.

The judges had a comprehensive tick list to help them make difficult choices.

David said residents' commitment to individual gardens and communal gardens reflected 'a pride of tenancy'.

David said: "We have suggested revising and extending categories for next year's competition with perhaps vegetable plots being included separately.

"We congratulate Magna, especially in these austere times, for continuing to fund this competition."

Results:

Large garden: Ms G Davies, Cheselbourne. Small garden: D Johnson, Fox Meadows, Reynards Court, Crewkerne, and Mrs M Hewlett, Vernal's Road, Sherborne. Communal garden: Mrs E Malcolm and Mrs P Arney, Fairfield, Chickerell, who were awarded the John Foot Cup. Patio and container: Mr and Mrs R Cox, Queens Road, Bradford Abbas. Vegetable garden: J. Davis, Lubbecke Way, Dorchester.

Magna makes final in UK housing awards

MAGNA Housing Group has won a place in the final of the prestigious UK housing awards run by the Chartered Institute of Housing.

The group, which is based in Dorchester, was shortlisted from 250 entries for its submission in the "supporting and integrating diversity" category.

Entitled "Actions speak louder than words", the entry focused on Magna's portfolio of training courses promoting equality and diversity and also its close liaison with the South West Dorset Multicultural Network.

Courses include anti-social behaviour, drugs and alcohol and mental health; hearing awareness; introduction to British Sign Language (BSL); BSL Level 1; cultural awareness; dementia; domestic violence; disability; dyslexia; E & D essentials; harassment; human rights; religion and belief; sexual orientation; sight impairment and accessible housing; text relay; transgender; and vulnerable and disabled residents. Magna involves staff, board members, residents, contractors, police and other agencies.

Magna used its route to achieving the Royal National Institute for Deaf People's "Louder than Words" charter mark as an example of its commitment to equality and diversity.

Sally Huggins, who has developed the courses at Magna, said: "We're thrilled to have been shortlisted in these national awards, which celebrate all that is great in housing.

"We find out who the winners are at a special awards ceremony at the Hilton Hotel in London's Park Lane on November 10."

She added: "Treating everyone fairly and with respect is common nature to staff at Magna because equality and diversity are at the heart of our culture.

"Every year we introduce new training courses to meet the challenge of achieving equality and promoting diversity.

Getting ready for a cracking Christmas

Although August is not yet over, thoughts are turning to Christmas and the annual Cracker Evening in Dorchester Town Centre.

With planning now well under way, it is hoped that people from local businesses, charities and other organisations will come forward to help in a variety of ways.

There are many ways in which people from the town can help.

Entertainment plays an important role in Christmas Cracker, and the committee are looking for local groups, choirs, bands and dance troupes who would like to take part and are willing to give their time without charge to help make the evening a success.

They would also like as many charities and other organisations to come forward as possible to take a stall for the evening. This year the charges will be £10 for a charity and £40 for a commercial organisation, all payable in advance.

The organising committee are looking for volunteers to help assist with the layout of stalls and are looking for marshals to assist the police and ensure the safety of those taking part, particularly those in the parade.

This year the theme chosen for the event is White Christmas, and with a new route planned for the parade. It is hoped that many schools, youth groups and other organisations will come forward to take part.

Organisers are open to any suggestions as to how people would like to interpret the theme, but stress that this is a walking parade and floats of any kind cannot be considered. Masks, lanterns, costumes, song and dance, from people of all ages will be very welcome, and advice from the committee can be given if needed.

It is hoped that A White Christmas - Christmas Cracker 2010 will be bigger and better than ever, but your help is needed to make this happen.

If you are able to help in any way or would like to take part, please email any suggestions or offers of help to info@dorchestercracker.com.

■ COACHES and players who attended Dorchester Rugby Club's Rugby Summer Camp

Coaching from rugby pros

A Rugby Summer Camp, held at Dorchester Rugby Club saw more than 50 children taking part in a week of rugby excellence, with coaching from South African and New Zealand professionals.

Five coaches, including one lady, led sessions throughout the week which included ball handling, tackling, fitness, teamwork, and of course games.

The three South African and two New Zealand coaches had an enthusiasm and love of the game which was both infectious and invigorating. And the young lady, a full South African international player, even took time out to run a coaching session with the Dorchester Ladies team.

Dorchester Rugby Club's Roger Clark said: "This is a tremendous experience for those taking part.

By Anita Harries

"It is wonderful to see the youngest players training with the older boys, watching and learning from both them and the superb coaches we have here this week.

"This is an experience all young players can only benefit from, improve their game and take all they have learnt forward to others within their club."

Anyone interested in joining the junior section of the Dorchester Rugby Club, registration for Under 16s to Under 13s takes place on Sunday, September 16th, and Under 12s to Under 6s on Sunday, September 12th, both commencing at 10am.

Children hop into space

SPACE Hop, the summer reading challenge being held across the country between July 5th and September 11th, aims to encourage children to take a giant leap into their local library, read lots of books and join in some fun events.

And the children of Dorchester and the surrounding villages have enthusiastically been taking part and having a whale of a time participating in a whole range of activities.

Every child enrolling in the Space Hop summer reading challenge filled in a registration form in exchange for a Space Hop Card and a Fold-out Poster.

The idea is to borrow and read six books throughout the duration of the challenge, collecting stickers along the way until the children have reached their goal and the card is complete.

A Space Hop Medal is awarded and a special certificate will be sent to their school during October.

The children are also encouraged to share

■ CREATING space pictures at Dorchester Library

comments on the books they have read, and recommend a book to send into space to the lunar library.

A whole range of books are available in Dorchester Library for the children to choose from, everything from ace animal stories and thrilling action adventures to fabulously funny books and books full of amazing facts.

One of the workshops held over the summer involved building a space ship for the library and proved incredibly popular.

As well as constructing the space ship, children created their very own space pictures by drawing, colouring, cutting out and pasting stars, rockets, colourful aliens, comets and bright yellow moons.

Another workshop on Thursday, August 26th, for children aged seven plus will introduce them to different kinds of poetry and help them to write their own.

It runs from 2.30pm to 3.30pm and is free.

The Space Hop Challenge and all its associated events is a wonderful way to get children reading and using their local libraries.

The library in Dorchester runs excellent sessions for children of all ages and abilities, from storytelling to hands on experiences and creative workshops.

For the really young, there is Toddlertime on a Saturday morning from 10am to 10.30am. Suitable for children from 18 months to four years, there will be plenty of clapping, tapping, wiggling and giggling together.

Mammoth display for museum

Two examples of woolly mammoth tusks have gone on display at the Dinosaur Museum in Dorchester.

The tusks form the centrepiece of a display on Mammoths and originate from the North Sea.

Between 50,000 and 20,000-years-ago the North Sea did not exist and England was connected to the continent by low-lying pastures. Prehistoric mammals such as mammoths, woolly rhinos, horse and bison fed off the fertile lands.

The tusks date to the end of this period and are unusually coloured owing to them having been in the sea for so long a time.

The fully-grown tusks of Woolly Mammoths were extremely long, up to five metres, and very curved. They were possibly used to aid the search for food and to demonstrate sexual prowess.

The sections of tusk that are on display at the Dinosaur Museum are about 1.5metres long.

"The new display comes at a time when new research has revealed that humans were not responsible for the extinction of the mammoths," said Tim Batty curator of the Dinosaur Museum.

"It had traditionally been thought that mammoths had been hunted to extinction.

"However, it now appears that it was climate change that caused their extinction. Mammoths were well adapted to the low temperatures of the Ice Age. The climatic conditions during the Ice Age did not favour the growth of trees and consequently there were extensive grasslands for the mammoths to graze on. "With the end of the Ice Age and the warming of temperatures, tree growth accelerated causing a spread of forests and dramatically reducing the available food supply for mammoths."

The tusks became buried in the thin layers of sand at the bottom of the shallow southern region of the North Sea.

Here they remained for thousands of years as they became fossilised. Eventually tidal currents and dredging released these fossilised remains to be caught in fishing nets of a trawler.

The award winning Dinosaur Museum is in the heart of Dorchester and is open daily.

Over the Bank Holiday weekend it is holding the Great Dinosaur Hunt from 28th to 30th August.

Youth festival returns

A 30-METRE long pig with a play inside it, a silent disco and the cream of local talent are just some of the things you can expect if you go down to Maumbury Rings this Saturday, when Dorchester's free youth festival, Anonymous, returns for its second year.

PIG features a 30 foot long sleeping sow in a pen, where the public get a chance to peek at a show that takes place inside her belly.

Whalley Range All Stars have taken shows all over the world, to 18 countries and now people in Dorchester get a chance to experience its unique take on theatre.

Elsewhere in the Rings top local DJs, including Iain Cross and Richie T, will be taking to the decks in the county town's first silent disco, while Digital Funfair, a firm favourite on the festival circuit combine new media, dance music, film and stuff found lying around in the street to create an experience which people will remember for a long time.

Young people also have the chance to try out free running, a climbing wall, flag and banner making, graffiti and much more.

Local talent will be on show with this year's line up of musicians.

On the main stage Dorchester's Thomas and the Mock Ups, Patchwork Mammoth and Kill The Conversation will be joining London based headline act The Stow, and other bands. The Acoustic Cafe will feature Jack Harrison and Joe Trudgeon, Lil Dreads, Beth Hyde, Owen & Capaldi and Ali Rich.

Between music on the main stage performers including the Kathy Davies School of Dance, the Dorchester Ballet and Dance Club, Dorchester Youth Theatre and Distinction with Cheerleading and Street Dance.

Emma Scott, Community Development Officer for West Dorset District Council said: "Young people from Dorchester Youth Extra really wanted to build on the success of last years Anonymous Festival, and we have really pulled out all the stops to make this an event that has something for everyone."

Anonymous 2010 will be held in Maumbury Rings on Saturday, August 28th from 12noon -10pm.

WARM FESTIVAL 2010 - WARM FESTIVAL 2010 - WARM FESTIVAL 2010

Music fans try to stay warm and

■ ORANGE barmaids in tribute to Julian Slade

■ REACTOR take to the stage

IT was anything but a warm summers day as overcast skies and heavy drizzle greeted the first of two days of fundraising fun in the Dorchester Borough Gardens.

Organised by Jack Daniels, the Warm Festival was held in remembrance of three local people, all of whom died in the past 12 months but did a great deal to help people in their own community and further afield.

This amazing musical extravaganza began with a concert in the Corn Exchange on Friday night dedicated to the memory of Carol Milner.

Son Paddy, a tremendously talented and renowned musician, played a gig to raise funds for Sightsavers, the charity chosen by Carol's family.

This is an international charity which works with other agencies to eliminate avoidable blindness and promote equal opportunities for disabled people in the developing world.

Carol was a friend to everyone, her energy and enthusiasm infectious, and her charity work tireless. And the concert by her son was a fitting tribute to a wonderful lady.

The weather on the Saturday failed to dampen the spirits of the organisers, and people turned up in wellies and waterproofs to enjoy some first class entertainment.

This day was dedicated to the memory of Julian Slade who lost his battle against chronic myeloid leukaemia last year.

Julian was another fundraiser devoted to his local community, working tirelessly for Dorchester Round Table, especially the annual Beerex festival.

He was also a popular governor at Damers First School.

by Anita Harries

His wife Katie chose two charities to benefit from Saturday's event. Southampton Hospital's Red and White appeal aims to create a transplant treatment centre for patients with leukaemia and other blood disorders from Hampshire, the Isle of Wight, Wiltshire, Dorset, West Sussex and the Channel Islands.

The Fortuneswell Cancer Trust works hard to improve the services to staff and patients of the cancer unit at Dorset County Hospital. This includes improving the facilities of the Chemotherapy Unit and supporting opportunities to provide treatment in hospitals closer to patients' homes.

Orange balloons, bunting and t-shirts were very much in evidence, Julian's favourite colour. It was only the weather that was grey as act after act took to the two stages in the Borough Gardens. WOB, Mark Penfold, Reactor, Boyd and Wain, Catherine Burke and Ansell and Gretel were just some of the acts who so generously gave of their time to support two great charities.

The music was enjoyed by those who braved the elements to give their support to the event, and there was plenty to eat and drink.

The Bandstand Bar, traditional farmhouse cider from Bridge Farm, a barbecue, Dorset Porkers Free Range Hog Roast, Olives et al, and Muddy Roots Coffee kept people going.

Circus skills occupied the children, Organic Beauty and Silver Fizz jewellery plied their wares, and some brave souls took a dip in the fountain.

Although the continuing bad weather caused the cancellation of the planned barn dance in the evening, this had been a great start to a weekend of musical madness.

Rain doesn't dampen spirits at second day of festival

■ ON stage with The Blue Notes

■ WITH Love From Humans hit the stage

THE second day of the Warm Festival in the Dorchester Borough Gardens was greeted with yet more rain, but spirits remained high and people turned out to remember yet another local person who lost his life this year.

Steve Charles, a popular and extremely talented musician lost his struggle against cancer at the age of 56.

He helped countless other musicians kick start their careers as well as playing in several local bands himself.

The Help a Friend – Help a Friend charity was set up to raise money to fund treatment for Steve, but under its new name of The Steve Charles – Help a Friend charity it aims to raise funds for friends of friends in need, especially in the Dorchester area.

Steve himself was in full support of this, and his legacy will continue helping others who find themselves facing adversity.

By Anita Harries

Organiser Jack Daniels refused to bow to the elements, and Sunday was yet another day of first class musical entertainment.

With performers using both the main stage and the smaller performance area beside the fountain, it was a real tribute to Steve that so many talented people again gave of their time to raise money for this new charity.

Blues band Yellow Bus were superb, as were With Love From Humans and the amazing Jigsaw.

There were excellent sets by a whole host of artists including Kipper, Nick Tatham and Gaz Brookfield, as well as the wonderful acapella singing of the Blue Notes.

Beer, cider and coffee were consumed by the gallon, burgers, hot dogs and hog roasts consumed almost as fast, and those who turned up made the most of every available inch of shelter to enjoy the music and support an extremely worthwhile cause.

And many of the musicians who took part gave CDs to sell, with all the money going towards boosting this new charity.

The organisers did a first class job in keeping the festival going and making sure that those who braved the rain were not disappointed.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

NEW INNOVATIVE MOBILE OPTICIANS FOR DORSET

A NEW service called The Eye Bus has been set up in Dorset to cater for the rural towns and villages that do not have direct access to a high street optician.

Jane Fisher has lived and worked in Dorset for 4 years. She found that there were lots of people who had trouble accessing eye care, either due to transport problems or a disability. She decided to see whether a mobile service would be possible.

After much research, Jane found it would be viable to put all of the traditional equipment that you would expect into a converted vehicle, such as a bus. There is only one other vehicle of this type in the UK.

The design of the bus is compact, as you might expect, but it has room for a reception/waiting area at the front and a testing room at the back. The testing room contains all of the latest state-of-the-art equipment.

All ages have been considered in the design of the bus. Children love being tested in the bus. Plus, with its lowering suspension and a ramp, it provides easy access for the less mobile.

Services offered by The Eye Bus include eye tests, minor spectacle repairs and a high street sized range of spectacles at internet prices.

Their service visits Beaminster, Holnest, Marnhull, Puddletown and Shillingstone on a weekly basis.

For more information, please contact 0845 900 21 41 or visit their website at www.theeyebus.co.uk.

Girls go the extra mile to thank hospital

FRIENDS Hannah Thorn (19) and Mia Fuller (18) have raised £215 for Dorset County Hospital by completing a sponsored walk.

The pair set off from Portland at 6.30am with the aim of walking more than 16 miles to Dorset County Hospital.

The pair completed the walk in six hours and with sponsorship from friends and family they raised £215, which they will donate to the maternity and Kingfisher Wards at the hospital.

On arrival at the hospital they were greeted by staff from both the wards.

Hannah said: "Both of us have been in the maternity and Kingfisher Wards with our babies.

"The staff have always be so good to us and we've

by Anita Harries

said for a long time that we wanted to do something for them."

The two friends also donated a large box of toys, each individually wrapped.

Sister Pam West was delighted to accept these on behalf of the Kingfisher Ward.

Miss Fuller and Miss Thorn had also prepared a book filled with messages of support to the hospital staff from other friends who have had children at the hospital. They handed this over to Christine Voce, Head of Midwifery at the hospital, who said that it was a very special book of memories that would be treasured by staff.

Healthy Feet -

The Foot and Heel Pain Specialists

www.footpainorthotics.co.uk

Member of the Society of Chiropodists and Podiatrists

Feet can cause us real pain and we may not even know it!

We only have one pair of feet and they take us everywhere so it pays to take good care of them, but most of us don't give our feet a second thought.....that is until they hurt! Once our feet are hurting most of us have no idea how to eliminate the pain. Untreated this can lead to long term problems, many problems associated with the foot are the result of a faulty relationship between the bones and the muscles of the foot. Misalignment can result in a number of problems, commonly flat feet, persistent ankle sprains, bunions, corns, calluses, even symptoms that one would not normally associate with feet such as stress and pain in the back, neck, hips and knees.

At Healthy Feet Foot and Heel Pain Clinic we prescribe and issue the very best foot orthotics using the most technically advanced equipment available anywhere in the world today. Our 3D Optical Laser Foot Scanner and computer diagnostic system is just one innovative method we use against foot pain.

So what are Orthotics?
Orthotics, are special footwear inserts that are individually designed and manufactured to ease your pain and discomfort. They promote the proper alignment of the feet, restore balance, improve sports performance and alleviate pain in the knee hip and lower back.

How do Orthotics work?
As your foot sits comfortably on our orthotic it is gently and consistently directed into the optimum position allowing the foot to function correctly when walking, running and standing.

At Healthy Feet Foot and Heel Pain Clinic our prescription orthotics are made to the highest standards available using modern technology, are completely accurate and provide the very best corrective treatment available. Our 3D Optical Laser Foot Scanner replaces the need for traditional plaster casting and drawing around the foot, methods still in use today which are messy, inaccurate, costly and utilizing materials of limited life, requiring frequent replacement.

Some of the conditions we successfully treat with our bespoke prescription orthotics include: Plantar fasciitis, Morton's neuroma and Flat feet..

REMEMBER YOUR FEET ARE THE FOUNDATION FOR YOUR ENTIRE BODY. Obtaining and consistently wearing orthotics can be the best investment you could make in your overall well being.

ARTISTS in and around Bridport will once again be throwing open their studio doors this Bank Holiday weekend.

The growing arts community in Bridport is fast making a name for itself nationally and many world renowned artists are now choosing to live and work here.

The Bridport Open Studios (BOS) event gives art lovers the chance to visit 100 of these artists in more than 45 venues across West Dorset free of charge.

What was originally a small event, first co-ordinated by artist Caroline Ireland in 1999, has now become a regular fixture run by a small team of dedicated volunteers, with artist Philomena Harmsworth taking over as director this year.

The open studios event provides a mix of emerging and established talent, with many award-winning artists, including painters, illustrators, sculptors, furniture makers, potters, textile artists and photographers.

One of the biggest venues taking part is the St Michael's Studio complex where 25 artists will be exhibiting their work on the historic rope-making estate - now known as Bridport's Artistic Quarter.

Artist Kit Glaisyer, recognised for his dramatic large-scale landscape paintings of the Marshwood Vale, started the studios in 1999. Other artists at the studios include Guardian illustrator Paul Blow,

by Tom Glover

and Ian Dunn, whose large abstract paintings are featured on the BOS Catalogue cover.

A stepping stone to university or employment

This time of year is often stressful for teenagers and their families as they anxiously await GCSE results and firm up plans for future study. For many young people it is the time to think about what do next, whether to stay at school, branch out to college or get a job.

The Bournemouth and Poole College is currently very busy with enrolments for September starts, and also helping those who have left their decision making to the last minute. Julie-Anne Houldey, Director of Marketing at The College says, "We do urge families to think carefully about post-16 study options and which will be the most beneficial for you. For some staying at school might suit them best, but for many taking the next step into further education at college provides a more mature learning environment and an ideal stepping stone for the future."

For students wanting to take the traditional route to university, Sixth Form College at the Lansdowne in Bournemouth currently offers 25 subjects at A Level. The benefits of choosing the Sixth Form College include the fact that you will be learning within a specialist post 16 environment, studying with like-minded students, with a focus towards academic rigour and success.

Of course not everyone wants to study A Levels and The Bournemouth and Poole College offers an extensive range of courses in many different specialist and vocational subjects, and has a range of teaching faculties and specialist academies providing excellent opportunities for you to develop new skills. The College is also the largest provider of apprenticeship training in the region, with over 20 different vocational options to choose from.

For teenagers with disappointing exam results or no formal qualifications you can choose TRAX! or TRAX to Employment which are short courses designed to help you fast-track towards a qualification.

Getting to college is also easy with the subsidised bus service offering 4 routes including, Blandford, Swanage, Verwood and Lymington.

If you'd like to find out more about courses at The Bournemouth and Poole College, including adult learning for students aged 19+ please call The College helpline on 01202 205205. You can also visit the website www.thecollege.co.uk.

Children have fun in the forest

By Anita Harries

THE beautiful surroundings of Thorncombe Woods, near Dorchester were home to a series of forest schools held throughout August.

Beech, oak and sweet chestnut trees provided an amazing backdrop for children turning up to take part in activity days based on the woodland and organised by the Dorset Forest School.

The forest school is an inspirational process that offers children regular opportunities to achieve and develop confidence and self-esteem through hands-on learning experiences in a woodland environment.

Thorncombe Woods are managed by Dorset Countryside, who kindly gave permission for the forest school to use them for their holiday activities.

Organisers Jill Hooper and Maddie Irvine devised games and activities based on the woodland environment.

Aimed at children between the ages of four and 10, there was a whole range of activities for them to try. Each child wore a tree disc with their name on before embarking on their very own woodland adventure.

Although the focal point was the camp fire, the children being taught how to make and light one as well as how to cook on one and observe all the safety issues that go with it, there was plenty to keep them occupied.

Along with playing some games, the opportunity was there to draw with charcoal, make rolling pins out of wood, hunt for mini beasts, work with clay, have a go at weaving, and make flat bread.

And free play time allowed the children to be creative, using their imaginations to build dens and make spiders webs with a variety of available materials.

The Dorset Forest School will be offering similar activities during all school holidays.

For more information visit the website www.dorset-forestschoool.org.

President shares his passion for agriculture

IN a cold damp field early on Friday morning last week, a day after returning from holiday, Melplash Show Chairman Marcus Beresford would be forgiven for not having a smile on his face.

On the contrary, however, Marcus couldn't contain his enthusiasm as he watched the show's footbridge being carefully manoeuvred into place by Townsend Engineering, a tradition that has been in operation since 1984.

Marcus admits he is a little nervous about the week ahead but he is equally excited about the pinnacle of his year at the helm.

Compared to many involved with the Melplash Show Marcus is relatively new to the agricultural world, but what he

VIEW Reporter TOM GLOVER talks to President of the Melplash Show, MARCUS BERESFORD as the final preparations take place for this week's show lacks in experience he more than makes up for with his passion.

"I like the farming community very much and believe passionately in the importance of agriculture to the countryside and our country's way of life, so I'm a big supporter of farming," he said.

During his long career in the British engineering industry, Marcus and his family would escape to West Dorset at every given opportunity.

It was during a stay at his Netherbury holiday cottage in 1990 that Marcus first came across the Melplash show.

"You can't possibly live down here and not come to the show, can you?" he said.

"It was the epitome of a small English rural show. There were more animals then, as it was pre foot and mouth and it was smaller of course because they didn't have the big countryside arena, but it was in most ways just the same, and just as good."

The show must have sown a seed in Marcus' subconscious because soon after he moved to his own farm at South Bowood, where he remains today.

The show selects a president each year decided upon by the previous president and the committee. Marcus admits that he didn't actually know previous president Annie Crutchley so he was surprised to be invited.

"Word must have got round that I was interested but it never ever occurred to me that I would actually be asked to become president of the show," he said. "I was very pleased to be asked and was delighted to accept."

By his own admission Marcus is an amateur farmer but he is keen to emphasise that the animal classes at the show are a must see regardless of your specialist knowledge.

He said: "I love to see the cattle and the sheep. I always think they put on a good show and of course the heavy horses are a sight to behold."

"I'm always impressed with the standard of entries, they are fantastic. They are always beautifully turned out and are a delight to see. Particularly for those who are not used to seeing animals and for those who live in the city and don't have the chance very often to come into the country and see the animals."

The show prides itself on offering something for all the family and Marcus believes that is now truer than ever.

"I take a lot of pleasure from the countryside arena because there are so many interesting things going on, which the kids love," he said.

"My grandchildren always particularly enjoy the ferret racing and dog training."

"It is a family event and there's something for everyone. The more kids we can get in the better because, part of what we're trying to do is to demonstrate to everybody, but the next generation in particular, just how important agriculture is and how vital it is for the country and the countryside."

"For me it's the absolute epitome of the real old-fashioned English country show and as such, it's a real delight."

An agricultural show provides a lot more than just animals to look at though and there is one aspect Marcus is particularly looking forward to.

He said: "Don't forget the food tent because West Dorset is a mecca for brilliant food and visitors will find an astonishing variety of wonderful food to taste and try and buy."

"Not just food from the land but there will be a tent for food from the sea because of course we are right bang beside the sea. We've got the sea represented at the show which was a new innovation last year."

The show is clearly the highlight of the presidency but it is just one of a long line of events attended by the president.

"My first direct participation is with the gardens competition, then the flocks competition. I must have seen every one of the 3,000 flocks of sheep down in Abbotsbury, which is pretty impressive."

"I think it's really important that this kind of tradition continues. And if I can demonstrate support for it and encourage it's continuation, then that's what my role is."

"I've enjoyed the lead up to the show but it doesn't stop at the show, we have the hedging and ploughing competitions in September. A lot of people think Melplash is just the show, but actually there is a whole year of events, there's quite a lot to do."

The presidency has certainly kept Marcus busy, but he will soon have to hand over the reins to the incoming president.

"I will miss it," he said. "I've thoroughly enjoyed doing it and it has been extremely rewarding. I hope I've contributed a little bit towards the maintenance of a great tradition."

"One of my principal jobs is to ensure it's a fine day so perhaps I'm getting a little bit nervous now in the lead up to it."

The South West isn't short of agricultural shows and Melplash is certainly not the biggest but Marcus, and the 24,000 visitors who attended last year, appreciate that it offers something special.

"The show is compact and tremendously friendly and has a great atmosphere, which is what makes Melplash different from other agricultural shows," he said.

"There aren't very many of them left, so many have disappeared. This amazingly has survived and flourished, and long may that last. I bank on it being here for another 163 years."

Marcus may be an amateur farmer but he is something of an expert when it comes to bee-keeping.

With this in mind he thought of the perfect analogy to praise the worker bees behind the shows success.

"Melplash Show is a bit like a beehive because without any management or co-ordination, everybody knows what they have to do and it all comes together as a finished hive on the day."

"It's an amazing organisation. Each of the section is actually run by a chairman who gathers a team of volunteers around him. They all work like beavers through the year to get their section up and ready on the day it miraculously it all comes together. The section chairmen do an absolutely astonishing job, they are the real backbone to the show."

Summer Holidays 2010

The Squirrel Inn

THE SQUIRREL Inn is a traditional free house located in the small hamlet of Laymore on the Somerset Dorset border. It boasts fantastic panoramic views that are spectacular from the function room and gardens, which contain an array of children's play equipment.

Open seven days a week for lunches and evening meals cooked to order; The Squirrel uses, where possible, locally produced ingredients.

The Squirrel opens on Sundays serving from the Carvery (two meats with fresh vegetables and accompaniment) starting at midday until 7pm, as well as their regular menu of delicious fayre.

The menu is changed on a regular basis and includes vegetarian options and a children's selection. Wednesday is steak day at The Squirrel where two rump steak meals can be purchased for £10.

The bar offers a large selection of beers and lagers with a house double special - anything on the optics for £2.50 (which includes main branded items). We have three real ales on rotation. These include Otter Bitter (from the Otter Brewery, Lup-pitt), Branscombe Best (from the Branscombe Brewery, Branscombe) and also guest ales.

We are featured in the CAMRA Good Beer Guide.

The Squirrel also boasts the "Squirrel's Dray" function room, which has the capacity for 80 seated, and 150 standing. This makes a fabulous venue for all special occasions, weddings, Christmas parties/meals and even business functions, with its spectacular backdrop of rolling countryside. The patio attached to this space offers a wonderful opportunity for barbecues.

Guests may like to stay over at such events and The Squirrel benefits from three well-equipped Bed and Breakfast rooms. All have en suite shower rooms with two having fantastic views over the surrounding countryside. We also have a self-contained cottage on site. These all serve as great holiday or weekend retreats. ## Cafe Royal JOINT business partners TJ and Shirley would like to make everyone in West Dorset aware that they are proud to regard themselves as one of the last standing 'traditional style' cafés in the area.

You can pop into Café Royal in Tannery Road, Bridport for a slap up all day Breakfast or freshly battered cod and chips at any hour of the day and feel completely relaxed, be yourself and watch the world go by.

TJ joined up with Shirley 7 years ago at the helm of the business with a vision to keep the retro feel of the business as close to that you would have experienced in café/diners in the 50's and 60's. They have moved with the times somewhat but feel that with more and more modern, downsized up-market outlets opening in towns all over, it will be a shame to loose the traditional style cafe altogether.

The many large windows flood plenty of sunlight into this airy, spacious café that boasts additional features in a Juke Box, Pool Table and children's play pen. It is large enough to cater for parties of 30-40 people and often does when coaches stop in the station opposite.

Children's parties have also been held at Café Royal as they love the kid's meals for £2 and there is a large penny sweet counter that the kids are very fond of.

For more information call TJ or Shirley on 01308 422012 or just pop by to enjoy the relaxed atmosphere at the café Royal.

Bridport Museum

BRIDPORT Museum is free throughout August thanks to a donation from Denhay Farms! We would like to thank Denhay for their generosity in making this possible for residents and visitors alike. There is something for everyone, including exhibitions like the Curiosity Cabinets, Fashion Through History, a real tiger's head, and the ever popular Rope and Net display. Our Gift Shop is full of local interest books, pocket money treats and souvenirs. Our team of volunteers will be happy to point you in the direction of the Local History Centre in Gundry Lane to enquire into your family tree, which is open on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Denhay Farms was started in 1952 by Commander John Streatfeild and Alexander Hood and have increased their head of cattle to around 1000 Friesian Holstein cows in five herds, all producing the milk for their West Country Farmhouse Cheddar. Besides grass, they grow maize and wheat and create a balanced diet to get the best possible milk to make high quality cheese.

Though no longer rearing pigs, Denhay now buys in high welfare assured pork from around the country to produce their award-winning bacon. They still hand rub salt into the pork and mature the loins and bellies for over two weeks to produce a consistent bacon "tasting like bacon used to taste!"

Denhay relies on the dedication of all its team to produce the best raw materials and service. Amanda Streatfeild: "We are proud to be a part of the thriving Bridport community and to work with all parts of West Dorset life from Melplash Show and Bridport Food Festival, to the Museum and other local activities."

The Keep Military Museum

THE MILITARY Museum of Devon and Dorset is considered by many as being a little like a "Tardis" in that from the outside there is this iconic structure not dissimilar to a castle albeit only 140 years old, but on the inside it blossoms to include four floors of displays all of which feature a truly fabulous collection of militaria spanning 300 years of service. The museums displays are ever changing, interpretation is a key factor when designing or re-configuring a display, this work makes it easier for visitors to understand something of what life was like during the many different era's of our soldiers involvement with military conflict and life in peacetime. Visitors this year will see a complete change to the second floor of the museum. This floor presents uniforms, weapons, medals and silver as well as many other very interesting artefacts. The entire floor is now lit by LED lighting in various forms. The lighting is more subtle in many areas but vibrant in feature displays. This lighting is modern by design, it is slightly more costly but this is far outweighed by the longevity of the lights, the savings in electricity consumption, and they greatly minimise any heat or UV damage to textiles or paintings. Visitors can get a taste of the museum by going to www.dorchesterdorset.com clicking on the virtual Dorchester Tab, scroll to the bottom of the page and then by using the left and right arrows locate the museum through the pictorial icons, once found, hit on the icon and come on into the museum. Come along and see the whole collection for yourself, you will not be disappointed.

Mouth watering cuisine and more at the Rajpoot

AFTER having recently been a to the Rajpoot in Dorchester in a large group, I decided to take my partner as I had been previously impressed by the ambience and feel of the restaurant.

For those that missed my previous review and have not yet experienced this marvellous curry house, I'd like to explain that this is not your run-of-the-mill Indian restaurant.

The recently refurbished business is finished to a high, and somewhat glamorous standard, boasting some of the most mouth watering, contemporary (and traditional) Indian cuisine imaginable.

Lighting, mirrors, décor, table layout, cutlery and crockery are all guaranteed to be a topic of conversation during your dining experience as they are elements that lots of thought has gone into, and that's before you have even seen or tasted the food!

To start, my partner chose chargrilled fresh water king prawns with coastal spices, ponden chillies and coriander seeds. I fancied dark rum and chilli soaked goan style beef grilled to a melting taste, both of which were superb. It is clear that only the finest quality and most fresh ingredients go into the dishes at the Rajpoot.

Our Main courses were again second to none.

I went for a tandoori seared lamb rack with mossala mashed potato and amrimsari sauce of cashew nut, pepper and mint and she had Spinach and mossala potato stuffed chicken breast with parsley based morel (korma) sauce and saffron rice.

Once again the evening was absolutely perfect, from the minute we walked in the door, to the minute we left.

If you like Indian food and haven't yet visited the Rajpoot, call 01305 257492 and book a table this week!

I should "pick" a fishy for my little dishy...

Billy the fish has been established in Dorchester for some time now and the people of the area have recognised his business as two sections, a Fish Monger on one side and quirky Sea Food restaurant on the other.

Recently Billy the Proprietor decided to combine the two and incorporate a significant fresh fish counter into the restaurant layout, giving his customers the chance to visually select their choice of fish and sit by and watch as it is prepared and cooked to their liking.

For example, why not pick and mix a fresh fish platter made up of prawns, scallops, calamari and lobster to be freshly prepared and served for a group of you to share.

You do not have to eat your pickings in the restaurant, the fresh fish counter operates as any other fish monger does and gives it's customers the opportunity to buy 'fruits de mer' over the counter and do the cooking bit at home or on the bbq.

The restaurant that Billy created now seats 36 and more if the venue is booked for private buffet parties. The business also has been known to cater for wedding parties, birthdays (with karaoke) and also special cook nights where you can (in small groups at a time) actually go into the kitchen and take part in the process of filleting and cooking the fish.

There are lunch and evening menus containing all fresh locally caught fish, meat and vegetarian options, vegetables which come, in particular, from Billy's father's allotment which adds to the friendly local feel of the business.

Lunch is served daily from 11-4pm and evening dinner from Thursday to Saturday from 7pm-late but Billy would like to make it clear that if you wish to book a table for an evening that is not advertised as open, the team will gladly open the restaurant to meet your needs. ## Superb Soul Shakedown

PAPA Le Gal and Easy & The Cali Five rocked the Soul Shakedown Party at the Lyme Regis Power Boat Club on Friday night, despite the worst weather of the summer.

London based Easy & The Cali Five, features former local lads Pasco Dunford-Wood on lead vocals and rhythm guitar, George Godson on lead guitar, Sam Royle on Bass, Nick Mcbrain on Drums and Mike Carter on Keys. The five piece played through an hour-long set of soulful original material as well as a couple of covers. They were a perfect warm-up for the captive audience, mixing a bouncing reggae rhythm section, subtle-yet-effective keyboards and chilled out surfer melodies, as well as some impressive bluesy guitar work from Godson.

CONSIDERING they've only been playing live with any line-up for less than two years, it is impressive that many of Papa Le Gal's original tunes are now well known dance/sing-a-long anthems to their loyal fanbase, and a testament to the musical abilities of each member of the band.

Lead vocals are now shared between the Jacques Verhaeren (also on rhythm guitar and bass guitar duties), and Grace Gillan - a more recent addition to the line-up - who provides a brilliant vocal compliment to Jacques, and also sends a small barrage of bubbles into the crowd!

Lead guitar comes from Olli Dixon (also backing vocals), who combines effortless technique with some incredible riffs on original tunes.

Drummer Greg Walters provides a tight drum section, complete with well placed solos and the occasional percussion collaboration with band mates.

Wil Benson - the first unofficial member of the band, frequently joining Jacques, Olli and Greg in earlier gigs - is now another important part of the band's live make-up, multi-instrumenting with bass guitar, keyboards and saxophone all part of his repertoire.

Papa Le Gal took to the stage, set up in a large marquee at the back of the Power Boat Club, at about 10.15pm. Anybody who'd previously been enjoying a drink on the benches outside the marquee, or in the inside bar, promptly made their way into the tent for an incredible hour and a half of live music.

Original piece 'Voodoo' kicked off proceedings, and was followed by a mass sing-a-long to the Michael Jackson cover 'Billie Jean'. Further covers followed including Toots and the Maytals' '54-46 (That's My Number)', The Eurythmics 'Sweet Dreams (Are Made Of This)' (which included a violin cameo from Alice Bowmer), a tongue in cheek version of Britney Spears 'Toxic', Creedance Clearwater Revival's 'Proud Mary' and a rip-roaring take on Men At Work's 'Down Under'. In amongst the covers was a superb mix of Papa Le Gal's own work, including a well received new tune. The set came to a close with another Toots and The Maytals classic, 'Monkey Man', and an encore including the band's own 'Bombay Sattire' and the fantastic 'Take A Step', rounded off with a breakdown into a samba beat that wouldn't be out of place at a Brazilian carnival.

You can always count on leaving a Papa Le Gal gig in a more cheerful mood than you arrived in. The upbeat tunes mean you can't help but dance; and the obvious love the band have for the music they make really comes through in their live performance - professional, but one big party at the same time!

The Soul Shakedown Party at the Power Boat Club will certainly not be the last time you see Papa Le Gal in Lyme, or the West Dorset area for that matter, but make sure that you catch these guys while you can - they're heading for bigger things. Look out for their debut EP in the coming weeks.

THE ANONYMOUS FESTIVAL MAKES A NAME FOR ITSELF

A 30 METRE long pig with a play inside it, a silent disco and the cream of local talent are just some of the things you can expect if you go down to Maumbury Rings this Saturday, when Dorchester's free youth festival, Anonymous, returns for its second year.

PIG features a 30 foot long sleeping sow in a pen, where the public get a chance to peek at a show that takes place inside her belly. Whalley Range All Stars have taken shows all over the world, to 18 countries in 5 continents, and now people in Dorchester get a chance to experience its unique take on theatre.

Elsewhere in the Rings top local DJ's including Iain Cross and Richie T will be taking to the decks in the county towns first silent disco, while Digital Funfair, a firm favourite on the festival circuit combine new media, dance music, film and stuff found lying around in the street to create an experience which people will remember for a long time.

Young people, and those not so young, also have the chance to try out free running, a climbing wall, flag and banner making, a graffiti and much more.

However the main reason for a lot of people will be the music and this year the breadth of local talent shows just how much is going on in the town, on the main stage Dorchester's Thomas and the Mock Ups, Patchwork Mammoth and Kill The Conversation will be joining London based headline act The Stow, and other bands, while the Acoustic Cafe features Jack Harrison and Joe Trudgeon, Lil Dreads, Beth Hyde, Owen & Capaldi and Ali Rich will be playing.

Between music on the main stage performers including the Kathy Davies School of Dance, the Dorchester Ballet and Dance Club, Dorchester Youth Theatre and Distinction with Cheerleading and Street Dance.

Emma Scott, Community Development Officer for West Dorset District Council said: "Young people from Dorchester Youth Extra really wanted to build on the success of last years Anonymous Festival, and we have really pulled out all the stops to make this an event that has something for everyone."

"Brilliant local bands and DJ's, amazing activities, stunning performers and much more. Its all free so you'd be mad not to join us in Maumbury Rings on Saturday and experience the whole event for yourselves."

For more information Emma Scott can be contacted on 01305 252204. Anonymous 2010 will be held in Maumbury Rings on Saturday, August 28th from 12.00 pm - 10.00 pm.

Beautiful butterflies at Museum

ON Thursday, August 26, Dorset County Museum is hosting a fabulous day all about butterflies. Starting from 10am there will be a variety of butterfly and moth-related displays and presentations for the whole family to enjoy.

Clive Farrell from Butterfly World, the UK centre for butterfly conservation, will bring in some live butterflies and moths - visitors can also learn which garden plants are the best for encouraging and feeding them in the summer months.

Experts from Exeter University will display work on examples of iridescence (rainbow colours) in butterfly wings and the Butterfly Conservation Trust will also be on hand to answer questions about the nature and habitats of these fascinating insects.

Finally, Professor Philip Howse OBE will be signing copies of his new book, "Butterflies: Messages from Psyche" in which he investigates the incredible patterns which appear on the wings and bodies of butterflies and moths. Find out how they use pattern and colour to shock, confuse and deceive predators, providing valuable seconds to escape. Discover how these patterns mimic owls' eyes, snake heads, lizards, wasps, scorpions and even claws, teeth and feathers! The Museum will also refund its entry fee to any visitors buying a copy of Professor Howse's book on the day.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

IT is not easy to become a published poet - and it's even harder to make money at it. It was Michael Ellison who wrote, "Poets and money are seen in each other's company only rarely."

So it is not surprising that there are far fewer published poets in the world than unpublished ones. Writing poetry is often a private, even a secret, pursuit. Sometimes, as in the case of Mary Dunning Thwing, verses only come to light after the author has died.

Anaesthesia

Green, forest-covered hills, range after range,
In silent beauty stand, and the cool air
Blows soft and fresh about them everywhere.
This is the Universe. It seems so strange
I never knew how simply I'd arrange
To leave my World, nor understand how fair
The Universe would be, how care
For mortal things would vanish with the change.
What's that you say? It's over? I am here?
That beauty was but fantasy of dreams,
And I've returned to those I hold so dear?
Yet beauty hovers round me still, it seems,
Surging joy of life within me thrills
Wrought by the vision of those far-green hills.

Adventure

Though you sail the wide world over
With adventure for your guide,
And fly before a cooling wind
Over a foaming tide;
When the ship of your desire
Drops her sails, at close of day,
You will want a friendly harbour
In a peaceful, quiet bay.

Though you fly on wings of fancy
Over countries rich and strange,
Over sunlit rivers flowing
Down from lofty mountain range,
When the dark comes and you falter

New Season Starts for Dorchester Film Society

AS schools go back and people return to work after their summer holidays we all start to think about those things to look forward to in the months ahead. For people living in and around the town, Dorchester Film Society's programme for 2010-2011, which kicks off with its first showing on Thursday, September 9, will be of great interest.

The society always has an exciting and varied programme and this year's is no exception. Some films are well known Oscar winners, such as 'The Hurt Locker', while others deal with people and events with which we are all familiar, such as 'Nowhere Boy', based around the life of Beatle John Lennon. Other films though are less well known at British box offices, but have been great successes in their own countries and at international festivals, such as 'The Mother', a Korean film, and 'White Material', a beautiful and challenging study of colonial and family values.

Attendances are often near capacity, but the Society are always delighted to extend an invitation to new members. Meetings are held in warm comfortable surroundings at The Corn Exchange or The Plaza Cinema using the most up to date equipment. Membership brings entry to the season of 18 films and members can purchase additional guest tickets in advance of the screening. The Society's projection licence does not allow us to sell tickets on the door.

Showings are informal and social with members getting to know each other at events such as the sherry receptions at the first and last films each year and the Christmas party when there is always a screening of a good recent comedy. So if you want to see the best in recent film along with like minded people, you couldn't do better than join the society. Its programme for next year is available in the widely distributed printed programme, on the society website at www.dorchesterfilmsociety.org.uk or by contacting the Secretary Gill Kohn, 21, Cambridge Rd., Dorchester, DT1 2LR

On the wings of your desire,
You will want to turn back homeward
To your hearthstone's evening fire.

MARY, who described herself as a housewife, was married to Charles Thwing, the President of Western Reserve University. The marriage, though childless, would appear to have been a happy one.

The Years

The years I lived before I heard your voice
Or ever felt your touch or saw your face,
Before our spirits answered each to each,
And sweet communion held through wordless space:
Those years were wasted years of aeons dull.
But since my spirit awakened at your call
And life through my limp veins began to flow,
Even as the world to throbbing day awakens
When the sun rises with his radiant glow,
Each year is but a day of glory full.

MP Letwin Backs Bridport's Electric Palace Cinema

ON Thursday, August 26th, Oliver Letwin MP will be taking to the stage of the Electric Palace to show his support of their efforts to reinvigorate opera and reach out to a broader public.

The Electric Palace in Bridport has become one of the latest venues selected to join the groundbreaking program of The Metropolitan Opera: Live in High-Definition, a series of opera performances transmitted live from New York to selected movie theatres and other venues around the world. To ensure optimum sound quality, the services of a professional sound company are being installed for each screening.

Popularity for the Met Live screenings has increased hugely with each season, with the screenings in 2008-09 being shown in 35 countries to more than 1.6 million attendees! Now Bridport can join this worldwide audience and enjoy the fifth season from October 2010 to May 2011, which includes eleven performances, screened live at the Electric Palace in Bridport!

As an independent arts organisation that does not receive any government funding, the support of the community and individuals is vital in the Palace's continuation to stage such ambitious and inspiring events.

On Thursday, August 26th, the Electric Palace will be screening Puccini's Madama Butterfly to raise funds for the costly purchase and installation of the bespoke opera satellite dish required to transmit the live broadcasts. Tickets for the benefit screening of Madama Butterfly are just £15 and include a glass of wine and are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Information Centre 01308 424901.

Full listings for the Met Opera Live season are available at www.electricpalace.org.uk

X Factor Auto-Tune
scandal deepens

X FACTOR | More than 12million people tuned in to Saturday's X Factor curtain raiser but not all of them were happy according to reports - and things could be about to get a whole lot worse.

Angry fans have criticised the show for fixing the contest, scripting the contestant's exchanges with the judges and using auto-tune technology to improve performers' voices.

Viewers flooded Twitter and other websites claiming that singers such as Gamu Nhengu and Caroline from G&S were digitally boosted on Saturday's show using auto tune technology.

X Factor bosses admitted using technology to improve the sound of performances, but insisted judges' decisions were based on the live audition.

A spokesman added: "Sound is edited and dubbed into a finished programme to deliver the most entertaining experience for viewers."

After the initial outrage surrounding the use of auto-tune technology in the auditions stage, The X Factor was plunged into further controversy as reports suggest the technology has also been used during past live shows, where viewers vote for their favourite acts.

Show bosses have already admitted using the audio wizardry to alter performances in Saturday's curtain raiser, but fresh allegations have cast a shadow over the integrity of Britain's favourite show.

One former member of the X Factor production team said: "It was an open secret on the show that Auto-Tune was used to both make contestants slightly more on key, or off, key. It has been used for a long time on the show both for the auditions and the live shows."

"The problem is that you have got a lot of contestants who sound equally good, so how do viewers at home make a judgement on who to pick. So Auto-Tune has been used to make good singers sound even better and not so good singers sound much worse."

Pop mogul Simon Cowell flew in to the UK in an attempt to calm the growing discontent amongst Britain's viewing public - don't expect this to be the last you hear of the X Factor Auto-Tune story.

PEEP SHOW | David Mitchell and Robert Webb have revealed that they have started filming new episodes of Peep Show. The announcement was made by the comedy duo on social networking site Twitter.

TOP GEAR | Top Gear's tame racing driver, whose identity is a closely guarded secret, has become as much a star of the revamped show as Jeremy Clarkson and co; prompting the man behind the visor to seek out his own publishing deal.

But the BBC have threatened the mystery driver with legal action over the proposed book about his life, fearing the autobiography could lift the lid on his identity.

It is understood publishers representing The Stig have hit back with their own legal letters, raising the prospect of court action.

The star who helps to train celebrities to drive the reasonably priced car reportedly earns up to £10,000 per show, is also a big money-spinner for Beeb through commercial endorsements. The corporation said: "The BBC is in a legal dispute over the publication of a book relating to Top Gear as this breaches agreed contractual and confidentiality obligations relating to the show."

Pelican sails back in
from Tall Ship Races

ON Wednesday, September 1st the Training Ship Pelican will return home into Weymouth Harbour at around midday.

On board will be a number of young crew members aged 16 - 18 from Weymouth who have sailed with the Pelican on the return leg of the Tall Ships Races.

During the Tall Ships Races 2010 the Pelican have received several awards which include:

- Best Crew in Parade - presented by organisers Sail Training International
- Most Improved Training Ship / Trainee - The Torbay Cup - Sail Training International
- FSB Awards - main Sponsor
- Mayor of Hartlepool Award

The Trainee Award/ Torbay Cup was presented to a young lady from Weymouth, full details are available from the Pelican Office on 01305 839476.

David (Ben) Swain, 2nd Mate said "This year the Tall Ships Races have been a real voyage of discovery for both the Ship and its crew. The Ship has enjoyed the usual mix of cultural visits, sports, friendly competition and international friendship. I am extremely proud of our achievements"

Over 100 young people joined the Pelican during July and August participating in all aspects of sail training. Sail training uses the experience of being at sea principally as a means to help people learn about themselves, discover hidden strengths and talents and understand the value of working as a team. Many of the berths were sponsored by the Adventure Under Sail charity and other local businesses and organisations.

The Pelican will not be alongside for too long, on September 3rd a programme of Day Sails will begin. The sails on 3rd and 5th are now fully booked so a 3rd date has been added to the programme for Monday, September 6th which really will be the last chance to sail on the Pelican this year.

For more information please call the Pelican Sales office on 01305 839476 or email: enquiries@adventureundersail.com.

Donkey walks and picnics in Beaminster

WALK a short way West of Beaminster through Puckett's wood and you will come to Stokewater Meadow, field home of Stokewater Meadow Donkey and Art centre. The French have been wild about donkey walking for years. There is something profoundly satisfying about walking with these attentive and affectionate animals. Taking the weight off your shoulders by carrying your picnics and baggage in the traditional way.

Smallholder Chris Brancher helped by his partner art educator Susan have set up the centre in a beautiful valley setting.

They offer a days donkey experience starting with basic donkey handling tips, grooming and tacking up followed by a leisurely walk four to five miles through the bridge ways around the Brit Valley and TV's original River Cottage location. Pub lunch or picnic en route.

In addition, parents and children may enjoy our donkey art picnics in the vicinity of the stream bordered valley centre, especially during school holidays.

Individual needs catered for. Please contact Susan and Chris Brancher on 01308 862045 for more details.

Cera continues big screen success

YOUNG comedy actor Michael Cera (Juno, Youth In Revolt) stars in Scott Pilgrim Vs. The World (12A), released today.

When bass-guitarist Scott Pilgrim meets mysterious Ramona Flowers (Mary Elizabeth Winstead) he's quick to fall in love. But Scott's fairytale romance is soon interrupted when he's attacked by the first of Ramona's seven evil ex-boyfriends and finds out he'll have to defeat them all if he wants to stay with the girl of his dreams.

Through a journey of self-discovery and by using his special skills, including skateboarding and playing the guitar, Scott overcomes six of the seven exes, but will need extra help to defeat the seventh, Gideon Graves (Jason Schwartzman).

TAKING ON THE WORLD
Michael Cera as Scott Pilgrim battles his new love's evil exes

ADAM Sandler, Kevin James, Chris Rock, David Spade and Rob Schneider play five former junior high friends who have since parted ways in comedy Grown Ups (12A).

When the group learn that their junior high basketball coach had died, over 30 years since they left the school, they all return to New England, where Lenny (Sandler) rents a lake house for all of his old friends and their families to stay at.

As their children begin to bond, and the old friends run into a few familiar faces, they reminisce about the old days and face up to the problems of their new lives.

Grown Ups is released today (Wednesday).

BIG KIDS | The all-star comedy cast of Grown Ups includes David Spade, Adam Sandler, Rob Schneider, Chris Rock and Kevin James

ALSO released today is Diary Of A Wimpy Kid (PG) – a partly-animated comedy based on the illustrated novel series of the same name by Jeff Kinney.

Pre-teen Greg Heffley (Zachery Gordon) can't wait to start middle school and is confident he'll be the coolest kid in class. He worries, however, about how his un-cool best friend Rowley Jefferson (Robert Capron) will fit in and potentially embarrass him.

But as they start their new school, Greg's quest for popularity doesn't go quite to plan. He accidentally breaks Rowley's arm during winter vacation and, when they return to school, everyone's attention is on his injured friend.

As Rowley's unexpected popularity grows, the boys' friendship suffers.

Bike Night launches in Weymouth

MOTORCYCLIST enthusiasts will be able to gather on Weymouth's seafront to show off their bikes and view other machine when a series of nights begins on Thursday, August 24th.

The town will see the launch of its first Bike Night, offering motorcyclists the opportunity to enjoy the Seafront atmosphere and share the occasion with bikes from around the area.

Every Thursday Night bike riders can create a display near the Pavilion Theatre area with their range of bikes including trikes, scooters and classics.

Weymouth and Portland Borough Council, Culture, Tourism and Community Facilities Brief Holder, Councillor Roger Allen said: "Weymouth and Portland has always been a very popular destination for local and visiting vehicle clubs and associations, we would like to express our support for the Weymouth Bike Night and endorse their ethos of promoting safe bike riding and good relations with all other road users.

"We wish them great success and encourage local bikers and businesses to join in and support this great weekly event."

Brian Coombes, Weymouth Bike Night Coordinator said, "We are delighted to have the opportunity to organise this weekly event on Weymouth Seafront and appreciate the support from the Borough Council. The response so far has been excellent with over 100 bikes attending. It is a great initiative to promote responsible bike riding and raise funds for the Air Ambulance and the RNLI."

Weymouth Bike Night will take place every Thursday at Weymouth Pavilion from 6 pm to dusk until September 30th. For further details visit www.weymouthbikenight.com or call 07779 861814.

Weymouth Bike Night promotes the BikeSafe, Dorset Campaign and supports and raises funds for Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and the RNLI.

Exquisite 3 bedroom Victorian home

This lovely Victorian home was originally built with the neighbouring property as a much larger dwelling in around 1860. Later it was used as a small hospital and then a training academy for young ladies. In around 1916, the property was split into 2 dwellings and a third smaller cottage added at the end. The property is situated within half a mile of the town centre and close to a local family run shop. The accommodation is full of character and comprises three good sized bedrooms, re-fitted bathroom, kitchen, sitting room, dining/play room and lean-to utility room. Outside offers the real surprise, with a garden measuring more than 200ft in length in addition to a small courtyard and walled patio area. The garden is in three parts: a small courtyard at the back of the house with steps leading up to a walled Mediterranean style patio and further steps leading up to the main garden which is made up of an area of formal garden with pretty views and a long terraced fruit and vegetable garden beyond the wall. The property benefits from gas central heating to a modern combi boiler and period single glazed windows and is offered to the market at £227,500. For more information or to book a viewing, please call Gordon and Rumsby on 01297 553768.

The new CLS - the new design icon from Mercedes-Benz

A GENERATION ahead: with the CLS, Mercedes-Benz created a new vehicle category in 2003 which for the first time combined the elegance and dynamism of a coupé with the comfort and functionality of a saloon.

The public were delighted, the competition astounded and a style icon was born: for years the CLS has endured as the only four-door coupé in its class, and since October 2004 it has been the car of choice for around 170,000 buyers worldwide. "Customers all over the world benefited from our bold move to launch a completely new vehicle concept onto the market," explains a delighted Dr. Joachim Schmidt, member of the board of Mercedes-Benz Cars, Sales & Marketing. "And with its exciting design, the new edition of the CLS also benefits from the fact that we are a whole generation ahead of the competition with our four-door Coupé."

Celebrating its world premiere at the Paris motor show (2 - 17 October 2010), the new CLS builds on the pioneering role of its predecessor yet at the same time is an entirely new edition. "The new CLS points the way forward for the future perceptible design idiom of Mercedes-Benz," explains Professor Gorden Wagener, head of design at Mercedes-Benz. "At the same time it takes its inspiration from the great tradition of stylish, refined sportiness which has always been a feature of Mercedes coupés."

Exterior: classic Coupé styling with distinctive front

The proportions remain as spectacular as ever: long bonnet, narrow-look windows with frameless side windows, dynamic roof sweeping back at an angle towards the rear. The four-door Coupé from Mercedes-Benz immediately made its mark in 2003 as a new style icon. Now the proportions are the same - and yet everything is different: the second generation of this design trendsetter has adopted a completely new look.

What immediately strikes the eye is the innovative front design, which is reminiscent of the Mercedes-Benz SLS AMG. Visually, the radiator grille is not integrated into the bonnet but is formed separately. This highlights the long, sporty bonnet even further. The grille is dominated by the large central star, which underlines the car's relationship to the other coupés of the brand and also enhances brand identity. The large, elongated dark air inlets with black grilles also add to the vehicle's athletic appearance.

Continental shines in Autocar Tyre Test

Continental tyres have taken top spot in the Autocar rear wheel drive tyre test 2010 with the ContiSportContact 3. The ultra high performance tyre proved its rear wheel drive capabilities in the test conducted on a Mercedes C280.

On the dry handling track, Autocar said: "The clear winner was the Continental SportContact 3s. Not only did they provide the fastest lap time, but also the smallest variance in times... Contis had good grip and great traction exiting corners."

The magazine tested the 225/45R17 in Uvalde, Texas. They chose a range of competitors from the main premium brands representing the tyres available in the UK market today. Autocar tested tyres to the limit across a range of measured disciplines including wet braking, dry braking, straight and curved aquaplaning and rolling resistance. As well as wet and dry handling tests at the track, they considered the tyres purchase price.

Continental product manager, Scott Benbow, said: "We are so pleased with this result. ContiSportContact 3 has displayed its prowess in a number of disciplines. Of the two rear wheel drive tests conducted by UK magazines this year, this win means it has been a clean sweep for the ContiSportContact 3 which proves what a great performance tyre it is."

Autocar also tested 205/55R16 on a front wheel drive VW Golf although not a winner, the ContiPremiumContact 2 finished a close second, missing out on top spot by just 1.5 points. On the ContiPremiumContact 2 test, Autocar said: "Beyond the Continental's speed, what defined these tyres the best was that they felt the most secure."

The ContiPremiumContact 2 shone in the individual tests winning the wet braking, wet handling and dry braking.

Volvo remains undefeated as pedestrian detection with full auto brake is awarded Best Car Safety Device by Businesscar

VOLVO'S PIONEERING Pedestrian Detection with Full Auto Brake technology has been named winner of the Car Safety category at the annual BusinessCar Techies awards. This world-first technology can detect pedestrians in front of the car, warn if anyone walks out into its path and then automatically activate the car's full braking power if the driver fails to respond in time.

Paul Barker, Editor of BusinessCar, said: "Volvo's continuing commitment to pioneering safety developments is unsurpassed in the motoring industry, and a key reason for its second consecutive BusinessCar Techies victory. The Pedestrian Detection system takes vehicle safety into an area no other manufacturers are seriously addressing, and comes on the back of other industry leading innovations such as City Safety which show Volvo's reputation for safety excellence is well founded."

Pedestrian Detection with Full Auto Brake consists of a newly developed radar unit integrated into the car's grille, a camera fitted in front of the interior rear-view mirror, and a central control unit. The radar's task is to detect any object in front of the car and to determine the distance to it, while the camera's job is to determine what type of object it is. The system can detect pedestrians who are over 80 cm tall, including children.

In an emergency situation, the driver initially receives an audible warning combined with a flashing light in the windscreen's head-up display - resembling a brake light. At the same time, the car's brakes are pre-charged. If the driver does not react to the warning and an accident is deemed as imminent, full braking power is automatically applied to bring the car to a stop.

Half of all pedestrian accidents occur at speeds below 15 mph. This technology can avoid a collision with a pedestrian at speeds up to 21 mph if the driver does not react in time. At higher speeds, the focus is on reducing the car's speed as much as possible prior to the impact.

A lower speed of impact means that the risk of serious injury is significantly reduced. For instance, if speed is cut from 31 mph to 15 mph, Pedestrian Detection with Full Auto Brake is expected to reduce the fatality risk as much as 20 per cent and, in some cases, up to 85 per cent.

Pedestrian Detection is available as part of the Driver Support Pack on the all-new Volvo S60. The Driver Support Pack combines Pedestrian Detection, ACC (Adaptive Cruise Control) with Distance Alert, Queue Assist, Collision Warning with Full Auto Brake and LDW (Lane Departure Warning) with DAC (Driver Alert Control) and BLIS (Blind Spot Information System) for £1,450 on the ES trim level and £1,250 on SE and SE Lux.

FOOTBALL NEWS

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

As rumour has it - The latest transfer news

THE usual pre-season transfer merry-go-round has started in local-football circles, listed below are changes likely to have occurred;

Tim Hussey has left Hawkchurch after one season and 30 goals to join older brother Phil in the Netherbury squad. The Ambers look likely to be amongst the Perry Street League Division One promotion chasers having also recruited Pete Lawrence, Aaron Marshall, Lee Quincey, John Kingston and Nathan Patten from the now defunct White Horse team.

Division Two new-boys Hawkchurch's loss has been tempered by the return of Simon Harding from Fivehead United and midfielder Bobby Langford who has been away from the game for a while. But eye surgery for Mark Herrod means he will be out for the season.

New Crewkerne Town manager Nick Murphy has spent little time in bolstering his squad which was surprisingly relegated from the Perry Street Premier Division having been crowned champions just 12 months previously.

Murphy has brought in Kris Hastings from Shepton Beauchamp. Hastings, previously a centre-back, was pushed up front to good effect last season bagging a dozen goals in the process. The Tigers have also recruited the Merriott Rovers quartet of Ashley Larcombe, Gavin Charles, Barry Hayne and goalkeeper Dale Wood.

Hayne in particular looks to be a shrewd acquisition having netted 41 Premier Division goals in the last two seasons to take his overall tally beyond the 200-goal mark.

More strikers on the move include Scott Jennings (Ilminster Town Reserves to Merriott), Ian Masters (West & Middle Chinnock to Ilminster Town) and Alan Mansell (Chard Rangers to Forton Rangers).

Meanwhile ex-Ilminster Town Reserves' player-manager Jamie Lee has moved down the road to join Dowlish & Donyatt.

Lyme Regis look to have secured the whole of last season's treble-winning squad. The Seaside's have also been boosted by the return of mercurial midfielder Mark Bailey, who missed the bulk of last season whilst he was coaching in America, and left-sided striker Joel Gostling who has returned to the Davey Fort having spent several seasons with Axminster Town.

Other men on their way out of Sector Lane include Scott Burroughs (to Farway United), Ben Turner (Sidmouth Town), Ollie Hyett, Richard Challis and Mark Hancock (all Seaton Town) and Callum Garrett (back to Millwey Rise).

Perry Street's preparations will have been hampered by a suspected knee-ligament injury sustained by goalkeeper James Carmichael in the 2-0 Chard Hospital Cup victory over Dowlish & Donyatt.

Beaminsters, for so long in the running for the Premier Division title last season, have been hit by the loss of Tristan Gale and Russell Legg who have both returned to Bridport.

It's a similar story up at runners-up South Petherton who have lost the services of pick-of-the-league striker Rich Hebditch, who topped the Premier goalscoring charts with 32, but has headed off to Westland Sports, and Rob Stubblings who was widely regarded as one of the top defenders in the League and has decided to pit his talents in the Toolstation Western league Division One with Chard Town.

Waytown Hounds are looking to build on their promising first season in the PSL. New manager Mark Hughes has prized Leigh Hansford away from his skipper's role at Pymore.

New Chard Rangers first team manager Justin Mason is putting his faith in a clutch of youngsters. Sixteen-year-old Dale Hutter and 17-year-old trio Scott Curtis, Ryan Ebdon and Lee Davis have all put pen to paper and will join striker John Mason who is making the step-up after an impressive 16-goal haul for the Rangers Reserves last season.

Charmouth have Nick Pomeroy back in on board as assistant manager after a couple of seasons with White Horse. The Robins could possibly be boosted by the return of striker Adam Cody-Boucher who brought up his century of PSL goals whilst in the green of Pymore last season.

There are also a couple of old faces back at Thorncombe's Horseshoe Lane. Goalkeeper Andrew Sochoy has returned after a season with Perry Street whilst the prolific Stuart Packer is back after a spell with Forton Rangers Reserves.

Pymore have signed Tom Gale, Andrew Huxter and James Pitcher from White Horse, whilst the club are also on the verge of adding Netherbury's Phil Ackerman to their books.

Finally, this correspondent doffs his hat to John Lukins who has hung up his Perry Street League pencil after more than 50 years of coverage. John will be continuing to report on Yeovil Town home games for the Western Gazette.

SPEEDWAY

Weymouth Wildcats 43 Plymouth Devils 31

WEYMOUTH Weyline Wildcats new look team got off to the best possible start in the National League Trophy campaign last night at the Wessex Stadium with a 43-31 win in the derby fixture against Plymouth Devils.

The first leg at the St Boniface Arena the previous evening had to be postponed due to a waterlogged track, so it was lucky that despite very poor weather conditions all around the south coast on Saturday, the Wessex Stadium was able to avoid the worst until the fog descended and forced meeting referee Tony Steele to abandon after heat 12 had been completed. However under the permitted rules the result is allowed to stand.

A dream start for debut rider Dan Halsey in heat one, backing up team partner Byron Bekker, saw the Wildcats on the way with a 5-1 over Dane Nicki Glanz, the Devils recent signing back from injury. This was added to in the following heat by the Cats reserve pairing; Gary Cottham moving down in the new look line up; and Richard Andrews to put the Cats 10-2 up.

The lead was maintained in a re-run heat three after movement at the start, with Tom Brown heading off Seemond Stephens after the Devil rider had initially led the race until Brown nipped through on the inside of turn three with ex-Cat Matt Bates third.

Heat four saw the Devils have their first of three heat advantages; James Cockle splitting the Devils pair of Mark Simmonds and Ben Reade with Cottham going from first to fourth on the first lap. Glanz and Jaimie Pickard teamed up for a 5-1 over lone Cat Brown in a re-run heat five, again movement at the start.

Glanz, Pickard and Brown all swapped places in an entertaining race which was again stopped after Karl Mason fell on the first bend last lap and was disqualified from another re-run of the heat. Brown took the early lead but couldn't hold Glanz or Pickard back who both passed to narrow the lead to just two points, 16-14.

Halsey scorched to his first win for the Wildcats whilst Bekker made a great inside pass on Simmonds to demolish the Devils for a 5-1 in heat six. Cockle then pegged back Stephens and Bates in heat seven. Halsey was involved in his third 5-1 of the night in heat eight, leading the way with Cottham heading off Pickard to put the Wildcats 29-19 up.

With the Cats now leading by ten points, Devils team manager Gary Spiller brought in Simmonds for a tactical ride. He produced the win they were looking for but the Cats pair Brown and Mason packed in for the minor places with the lead now cut to eight points.

Heat ten was re-run twice. Two laps in Bates fell on the second bend causing the first stoppage and was duly disqualified from the re-run in which Halsey unbeaten up to this point, lifted wildly and fell.

Stephens unable to avoid him clattered down onto the track, and thankfully both riders were able to walk away after treatment from the medical staff. Halsey was disqualified from the second re-run where Bekker got the drop on Stephens.

Cockle kept Glanz and Pickard at bay to share the points in heat 11 before the Wildcats stuck in another 5-1 in heat 12, Cottham and Brown over Bates.

At this point the meeting referee Tony Steele consulted the team managers and team captains which resulted in the meeting being abandoned due to the fog and poor visibility, with the result a Wildcat win 43-31 over the Devils standing.

Promoter Phil Bartlett said: "Plymouth have won the trophy in the past, now we have strengthened up bringing in Dan Halsey we have a strong pairing at 1 and 2, where as in the league campaign we suffered with injuries we are going to go all out to try and win the trophy. The team is much more balanced, we're not top heavy so we can pick up points all the way through; that's how we won the league in 2008, with a more balanced team.

"Terry is still out struggling with his injury and obviously has to regain his fitness. This season could be over for him, we'll have to wait and see how he progresses over the coming weeks. His replacement cover Adam McKenna has gone back to Newcastle in the Premier League which was his aim after coming back from injury himself.

"He did us a big favour covering for Terry and we did him a favour with a chance to prove himself which he did with a string of solid scores. Dan has come in as a fantastic replacement after Mildenhall closed down which saw Bournemouth switch their team around making Dan and Karl available and we've been fortunate to pick them both up. Karl has had a bit of a nightmare tonight, he knows his way round here and was with us back in 2008; he'll come back strong."

The Wildcats return to league action at Birmingham's Perry Barr stadium tonight (Wednesday) evening against Dudley Heathens before returning to the Wessex Stadium to take on the challenge of the Newport Hornets also in the league on Friday at 7:15pm.

This is followed by a double header at Buxton with both the league and trophy fixtures on Sunday 29th at 3pm and the Isle of Wight on Tuesday 31st in the trophy.

LYME REGIS GOLF ROUND-UP

MAIN CLUB with Steve Percival

IN A week when the run of good summer weather experienced so far seems to have finally come to an end, it was no surprise that the week's golf programme suffered some interruptions.

However, in the main, the majority of planned events were completed successfully despite the onset of damp and foggy weather at the top of Timber Hill.

Junior Golf

The junior section of the club entered two teams into the Colin Chataway County Junior team event.

Staged as a Stableford team event at Bridport Golf Club with teams from the length and breadth of the county, the competition was fiercely contested with some excellent team and individual scores.

The Lyme first team of Sophie Keech, George Yorke, David Lyon and Kai-to Li carded a very creditable 138 points to achieve fifth place overall.

Top scorer in the team was Sophie Keech with 39 points. The second team of Danny Searle, Brad Burraston, Alex Palmer and Theo Baulch were in 12th place with 123 points.

Theo Baulch was top scorer for the team with 40 points. Meanwhile, George Yorke continues to gain representative honours for Dorset with David Lyon now called up for a place in the county coaching squad for next year.

Weekly Stableford

The weather and course conditions were good for most of the participants in the weekly Stableford event on Sunday, August 23rd.

However, some of the later starters did get a little damp towards the end of the round. With fairways still running well and greens still consistent, scores were inevitably good in the main. Highlight of the day was a hole in one achieved by Tim Daniel on the par 3 third hole.

Division One saw Stuart Scott (11) achieve first place on countback over Jim Gait (11) with 41 Points.

In third place was Rob Clapp (5) with 38 points in a round which included a birdie two on the 11th.

Division Two was won convincingly by Alex Faux (16) with an outstanding 43 points. Second was Neil Cornelius (15) with 37 points, only one point better than John Lawrence (17) with a level par equivalent of 36 points.

LADIES by Ellie Langford

SIXTY-one players took part in the Vi Crow Stableford competition on August 19th and, apart from a few light showers, the competition went well.

Results: 1st, Val Wailes, 39pts; 2nd, Gilly Madill, 37pts; 3rd, Jenny Scott, 37pts. Val Wailes cut her handicap to 18.

Sport in brief

DARTS

THE 2010 Candles on the Cobb darts competition saw 41 singles entries and 21 pairs this year, with a good day being had by all.

The winner of the singles was John Lakeman from Devon who beat John Clarke from Dorset. Runners-up were Ben Ward (Dorset) and Derek Legg.

The pairs winners were Kevin Dalwood and Gordon Fitzpatrick beating Merv Whackley and Tony Young in the final leg. Runners-up were Mark Munro and Ray Powell and Gordon Penn and Rhino (Mark Stapleton).

The event raised £620 for Candles on the Cobb from the day's entries and some darts memorabilia.

Phil Street and Mike Higgs thanked Debbie and Rob Hamon of The Nag's Head for putting the venue up again and supporting the event for the sixth year.

FOOTBALL

Charmouth

CHARMOUTH have played two friendlies so far, both without full squad availability due to holidays and work commitments, losing the first by just 2-0 to a Bridport 3rds XI and the second by 4-0 to Beaminsters, but with some promising performances from some of the younger players.

Tech club are pleased to have now signed former players Nick Phillips, Dean Obstancias and Adam Cody-Boucher as well as many of last year's first team.

There is a really strong team spirit building up already and both the management and players are looking forward to the start of the season.

In the meantime Charmouth have some further friendlies: on Wednesday, at home against Uplyme; next Saturday, at home against Barrington; and then away to Axminster Reserves on August 31st.

The full squad should be available for these matches and they will have three opportunities to play together and bond as a team before the season starts on September 4th with a local derby home against Lyme Reserves.

Dorchester U18s

Dorchester Town Youth U18s are looking for new players to play in Sunday's Dorset League Division One.

You will be coached by former AFC Bournemouth Centre of Excellence and experienced sports fitness coach Andy Pear.

Training is on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 8pm at Poundbury Fields.

Anone interested should contact Andy on 07928 397678.

WITH STUART BROOM

Hicks stars as Dorset lift title for first time in a decade

DORSET celebrated winning the Minor Counties Championship Western Division title for the first time in a decade with captain Tom Hicks playing a captain's role as he bowled and batted them to victory.

Their victory came as Berkshire, who could also have won the crown, crumbled to defeat on day three by losing to Cornwall.

Wales won the toss and decided to bowl and it looked a good decision as Dorset collapsed to 33-3 with Aaron Williams (1), Glyn Treagus (5) and Josh Lawrence (6), all falling early, but Nick Park (54) and Darren Cowley (83) rescued the innings with a fourth wicket stand of 132 that saw Dorset scramble to 213 all out.

Whilst the Welsh top order all made starts, only Adam Harrison (47) could handle Hicks who decimated the opposition with 7-54 from 28 overs aided by Mitch Wilson (3-32).

Hicks then played a captain's innings when Dorset batted again with a fine half century. Once again Williams (14) Treagus (5) and Lawrence (0) disappointed along with Nick Park (15) at the top of the innings, but Cowley (44) again helped Dorset recover from 45-4, adding 88 with Hicks for the fifth wicket.

Chris Park (19) and Ed Denham with a solid 33 not out supported Hicks, who was eight out for 58, as Dorset compiled a total of 233, setting Wales a winning target of 287 runs.

Nickolas James (26) and William Bragg (67) got them off to a good start with a half century opening partnership. However after Hicks (3-40) claimed James with the score on 57-1, wickets tumbled regularly and at the end of the second day Wales could only hope for the weather to help avoid defeat as they slumped to 137-7 with Treagus (2-32) and Denham (1-27) also claiming wickets.

Matt Metcalfe soon cleared out the tail on day three snaring (3-27) as Dorset clinched victory and the title after just 4.2 overs.

Bridport Rugby Club

BRIDPORT Rugby Club are looking to carry on their rapid ascent through the leagues as they begin a new season in the Southern Counties South division.

Last season the 1st XI were promoted as champions of Dorset and Wilts South division one and this year will be hoping to cement their place in the Southern Counties South division alongside rivals Sherborne and Dorchester.

The young side has an average age of just 22 and those surrounding the club are predicting a great future ahead.

Club captain Shaun Stewart said: "We have a great young side at the moment, obviously last season they came on really well.

"We are training hard and hopefully we will carry that through to this season. It's going to be a big step up for the lads but I assume that they are going to be ready for it.

"I followed Dorchester last season and if they can do it we can. We have beaten them in a couple of pre-season games so it is looking promising. We just need some bigger lads in the pack.

"If they can stay together then I am sure they will go far but it is down to the individuals to turn up to training and work hard.

"I would like to thank the coaching team, they have put a lot of time and effort in and all the players who have been working hard in pre season to achieve their goals."

The club has come a long way from the wooden pavilion and communal baths it had in 1969 and will this season benefit from state of the art changing facilities, installed by Bridport Leisure Centre.

Despite a lot of changes this year, some things remain the same and players will be glad to see former full back David 'Shandy' Williams sharing his pearls of wisdom from the veranda every Saturday.

The club's sponsor's draw was this year won by Girling and Bowditch Veterinary surgeons of Beaminster. The company name will appear on the 1st and 2nd XV shirts and fixture cards this season. Second and third prize draw winners were No 10 of Bridport and A.J. Wakeley and Sons.

Anyone interested in joining the club should call Shaun on 01297 560478 or club president Chris Wren on 01308 424365 or chairman Geoff Hunt on 01308 420246.

If you would just like to show your support for the team, the first home game is on Saturday, September 18th at 2:45pm. Entry is free and programmes are available for £1.

Looking forward to the new season

Terras' second string snatch late win

BRIDPORT RESERVES 2 WEYMOUTH RESERVES 3
WEYMOUTH Reserves pulled off a superb win at St Mary's Field after the hosts had shown them how to take chances in a first half that saw them leading by two Ben Clarke goals. However the Terras showed their mettle in the second period to snatch victory five minutes from the end.

The Bees had opened this campaign with two 1-0 victories and looked to be making it a hat trick as they took the lead through a penalty, when Tristan Gale was bundled down by keeper Ashley Weekes, and then added a second when Jordan Vincent slipped to allow Gale to get away and feed Clarke to score from eight yards.

The Terras who were marginally the better side in the first half, finally got reward for their efforts when Mike Rousell pulled one back with 20 minutes to go.

New signing Adam Taylor then equalised before Ryan McKechnie scored the winner five minutes from time.

Unfortunately Vincent suffered knee ligament damage when he slipped and is likely to be out for a while.

Bees boss Steve Crabb whilst admitting the better side won was disappointed his side didn't get a point from it.

"Locky (Mark Lock) and

I would have settled for a point as they are a good side, and when the first team is sorted out, I think they will be even better.

"We thought a draw was what their efforts deserved, but we need to stop giving away stupid free kicks which resulted in their last two goals.

"They have a couple of players whose delivery from free kicks is superb and they made us pay for it. We had a couple of half chances in the second half before they scored, but to be fair they were the better side overall.

"I thought once again our effort and commitment was fantastic, and if they continue to work as hard as they did, we will be happy and will do okay."

Magpies rue missed chances

MONDAY, AUGUST 23RD
Blue Square Bet South
BASINGSTOKE TOWN 1
DORCHESTER TOWN 0

DORCHESTER once again failed to take their chances on Monday night and fell to their fourth consecutive Blue Square Bet South defeat to leave them rock bottom.

Manager Ashley Vickers changed his formation following the defeat at home to Woking on Saturday with Nick Crittenden making a five man midfield at the expense of Stuart Douglas and leaving Ryan Moss as the lone striker.

This had the added effect of stifling the host's midfield and both Dave Allen and Moss went close early on. But, as with Woking, the Magpies failed to build on the good start and they fell behind to David Pratt's header from Matt Finlay's cross just after the half hour.

As in the first half, Dorchester started the second better than Basingstoke, and they were denied an equaliser when Steve Devlin's shot hit the post before Ryan Hill and Allen went close.

The introduction of Matt Groves for Crittenden increased the pressure on the home defence, and Nathan Walker saw his header from Devlin's corner cleared off the line, but it was all to no avail.

Vickers was adamant that his side deserved something from the game.

"Once again we were so dominant it was unbelievable. Each and every one of the lads were outstanding and if we continue to play with such a positive frame of mind we will be okay."

West Dorset football round-up

Magpies shot down by speedy Spitfires

TUESDAY, AUGUST 17TH

Blue Square Bet South
DORCHESTER TOWN 0
EASTLEIGH 4

Attendance: 502

IF EVER Dorchester Town manager Ashley Vickers needed a reality check then this was it. The Magpies were unceremoniously dumped by an Eastleigh side that were better all over the field.

Dorchester hoped to carry on where they left off at Bromley on Saturday having dominated a match they should have won, but came away empty handed having squandered several opportunities to have won. Eastleigh gave them a lesson in how to do it, having had five shots and scored with four of them.

Vickers started with the same side as Bromley except the inclusion of Dave Allen instead of Simon Evans on the bench, but his side gave one of the most disappointing displays seen at The Avenue for a long while.

Eastleigh are one of the favourites for promotion and it showed in a strong, purposeful performance that dispelled any worries having lost their opener against Bishop's Cleeve.

Jamie Slabber gave notice of their goal power as early as the third minute when Regan Coward did well to push away his fierce angled drive.

Dorchester responded almost immediately and Matt Groves almost got on the end of a miscued Nick Crittenden shot that passed across the goalmouth.

Then former Terras keeper Jason Matthews did well to race to the angle of the penalty area to block Ryan Moss before he had the chance to shoot after he had superbly collected a long Ryan Hill pass forward.

Eastleigh opened the scoring on 18 minutes when Will Hendry intercepted Steve Devlin's ball out of defence before his angled pass gave Slabber the chance to beat Regan with a low shot across the keeper's body.

Ryan Hill, who scored a brilliant free kick at Bromley and went close on several other occasions, couldn't find his range against the Spitfire's and drove his first effort straight at Matthews on the half hour, before Devlin played a neat one-two with Kyle Critchell but the latter's angles shot was pushed away by the keeper.

Dorchester's confidence was knocked almost immediately when Brett Williams got a lucky rebound in a tussle with Kevin Hill in the box and he set up the unmarked Slabber for an easy goal.

The Magpies almost pulled one back just before the break from Ryan Hill's corner, but Critchell couldn't get enough on Moss's ball played back into goal and he glanced his header wide.

Vickers rang the changes at the break replacing Jamie Gleeson, Crittenden and Groves with Allen, Stuart Douglas and James Coutts, who had a chance immediately when Mark Jermyn back-heeled the ball into his path, but his left foot shot lacked power.

Eastleigh added their third on 52 minutes with a similar scenario to that of Dorchester's unsuccessful effort ten minutes earlier.

However this time Slabber was able to make good contact with his head after Richard Gillespie headed Richard Graham's cross back into the goalmouth.

There was no coming back from this point for the Magpies and they conceded again just after the hour when Chris Holland's header from Graham's corner was deflected past Coward as he went to collect it.

As the game drifted to its conclusion, Matthews was called upon to prevent Dorchester grabbing a consolation with a double save. He blocked Jermyn's hitch-kick volley at close range from Moss' cross before spreading himself to keep out Devlin's follow up.

A minutes silence was held before kick-off in memory of Weymouth Football Club President Bob Lucas who died last week.

After the game Vickers accepted responsibility for the defeat claiming he chose the side and that it was down to him.

"I've said all along that I pick the team and that it's therefore down to me. That's all there is to it. I'm not going to lambast the boys that's not my style, and whilst many people probably expected me to be punching walls in the dressing room afterwards, the game had gone and there is no point in me destroying players; there is no value in it, and the players know what is acceptable and what isn't."

"I trust those players implicitly. On occasions you will come up against teams who are better, and who pay out a lot more money than we do, like Eastleigh."

"We had them watched and knew their strengths and weaknesses. We discussed those weaknesses, and there was one thing in particular I asked them all to do, which they didn't do."

"We conceded four bad goals; Regan Coward had nothing to do except pick the ball out of the net. These setbacks will bring the best out of the lads. They'll all reflect on it, I'll reflect on it every day until Saturday and we'll endeavour to put it right."

Vickers suggested there would be changes before the home match with Woking on Saturday saying: "I know where our weaknesses lie and there are perhaps some harsh decisions that have to be made on the back of this result."

"I will now make the necessary decisions for the next game in order to put things right."

Magpies decked by Cards

SATURDAY, AUGUST 21ST

Blue Square Bet South
DORCHESTER TOWN 1
WOKING 2

Attendance: 547

DORCHESTER Town remain rooted to the bottom of the Blue Square South after their third consecutive loss of the season, once again failing to find the kind of slick performances they showed in pre-season friendlies.

Despite arriving late at the ground through traffic congestion causing a 25 minute delay to the kick-off, Woking, with little time to warm-up, got their first points of the season following another disappointing Magpies display with two goals by Dave Gilroy, who manager Ashley Vickers tried to sign in the summer.

Vickers made five changes from the team that was destroyed by Eastleigh in midweek, but they failed to take advantage of the Cards lethargic start.

It may have been a different story if Ryan Hill's free kick in the third minute had found the net instead of crashing against the top of the crossbar, but Woking weathered the early storm and once they found their legs they had the measure of Dorchester.

Hill, who had scored with a superb free kick in the opening match against Bromley, had the chance after Stuart

Douglas was fouled out wide on the right.

However with Cards keeper Lenny Pidgeley expecting a cross to the far post, Hill smashed his shot against the crossbar and over the top.

Woking couldn't hold on to the ball and with Dorchester dominating, Steve Devlin beat two defenders before laying the ball off to captain for the day Mark Jermyn, but he shot straight at Pidgeley from 20 yards.

It took Woking 25 minutes to muster a shot, but Aswad Thomas' left foot effort went well wide of the right hand post. This encouraged the visitors and defender Alan Inns' shot cleared the bar before Sam Hurrell's shot was deflected for a corner.

Now back up to speed, Woking took the lead ten minutes before the break when Gilroy, having lost his marker Nathan Walker, chested down Mark Ricketts precise cross to net from 15 yards past the defenceless Simon Evans.

Dorchester almost equalised immediately when Ricketts missed a through ball allowing Devlin a run down the left. His cross was deflected by Inns and looped over the bar with Pidgeley stranded.

After the break Evans had to save with his feet when Hurrell broke through, before Vickers decided on a double substitution just before the hour with Nick Crittenden and Matt Groves replacing Douglas and James Coutts.

Five minutes later Dorchester were level. Daryn Hennessey brought down Devlin on the right hand angle of the penalty box for which he was duly booked, and although the referee allowed the Woking defence to encroach, Hill curled the ball around the outside of the wall and just inside the near post, in a carbon copy of his goal at Bromley.

This gave the Magpies the impetus that had been lacking all the game, and when Pidgeley failed to hold another Hill free kick at his near post from the other side of the field, Walker missed a great chance by heading the rebound the wrong side of the post.

Dorchester were denied an obvious penalty two minutes later when Ryan Moss' back heel flick caught Adam Doyle squarely on the hand, but the ref waved the appeals away. Devlin then had two shots - one dipped over the top, the other driven straight at Pidgeley - before Crittenden shot wide after losing his balance.

Gilroy should have won Woking the points before he did, when with six minutes left he was left free on goal when Walker missed Jerome Maledon's headed pass. Whilst he sent Evans the wrong way with his shot, the big stopper stuck out his hand before pouncing on the rebound.

However there was no denying the striker who almost joined the Magpies in the summer, when he was on hand to steer his shot past Evans after Toby Little had squared the ball to him from sub Craig Faulconbridge's headed pass.

Whilst there was a slight improvement on Tuesday's game, the Magpies will certainly need to pick up their game before Monday night's encounter at Basingstoke.

Vickers however was certain it was only a matter of time before his side broke their duck.

"I thought the performance was excellent and the boys bounced back from Tuesday's defeat against Eastleigh. They did all that I asked but we didn't get the breaks."

"Everyone who was at the game will agree that we dominated, so to get caught by a late sucker punch like we did was criminal."

He was however critical about both the goals they conceded and having a penalty turned down.

"Both the goals we conceded were criminal from a defensive point of view. The first goal was an awful goal, as was the second, and we need that mental toughness to close games out."

"Everything evens itself out though, and you have to keep believing that things will come around. That includes refereeing decisions, because there was a blatant handball by Woking and it beggars belief as to how that wasn't given as a penalty."

Terras share points

THURSDAY, AUGUST 19TH

Zamaretto League, Premier Division
WEYMOUTH 0
SWINDON SUPERMARINE 0

Attendance: 743

WEYMOUTH fought out a second goal-less draw in their first home Zamaretto Premier Division match of the season to follow up their stalemate at Halesowen on the opening day.

Although the visitors had the better of the first half, the Terras fought back after the break to secure a deserved draw in a game bereft of too many chances.

Swindon Supermarine did score midway through the first half when Nick Stanley beat Nick Manley in the home goal with a 30-yard effort that took a big deflection, but the referee disallowed it claiming it had struck one of his own colleague's hands on its way.

Manley had in fact looked in form saving from both Jamie Gosling and Chris Allen with Weymouth's best effort a Jules Emati-Emati lob stretching to reach skipper Simon Radcliffe's cross, which Marine's keeper Mark Scott held comfortably.

The introduction of Warren Byerley in place of Emati-Emati soon after the break gave the Terras a bit more impetus, and on the hour he was unlucky with a looping header that Scott tipped over the top, before firing a shot across the keeper that went beyond the far post.

Gosling, who had been a threat throughout, then went close before Cameron Mawer denied him just as he was about to shoot.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 21ST

Zamaretto League, Premier Division
WEYMOUTH 1 OXFORD CITY 1

Attendance: 534

MANAGER Ian Hutchinson was left frustrated by his side's third consecutive draw.

"We really should be winning our home games, particularly the two to date if we are to progress up the table. It's a bit frustrating because with respect to them they are the sides we should be beating, particularly at home, and I am a slightly disappointed."

"Having said that, on the positive side, two months ago people wouldn't believe that we would be unbeaten after three games!"

Frustrated at not scoring in the first two matches, Hutch paired Warren Byerley up front with new signing Pierre Joseph-Dubois in place of Jules Emati-Emati and Sam Charles, but in fact it was midfielder Richard Groves who scored their first goal of the season to put the Terras ahead.

He scored on 14 minutes after he charged down City full back Jack Mills attempted clearance. The ball fell to Byerley who couldn't get a clean shot away and when the ball looped into the air, Groves struck to volley the ball past keeper Richard Knight.

This encouraged the Terras and captain Simon Radcliffe fired in a low drive which Knight saved at his near post.

City were unsure about set pieces and Sam Clarke went close twice, the second a header that struck the top of the crossbar. Joseph-Dubois was then held back by Dave Savage as he burst through as Weymouth upped the tempo.

Oxford came out after the break with more purpose and after James Faulkner just failed to get on the end of a Harry Harding cross, Harding brought City level with a stunning equaliser when he cut inside defender Matteo King before firing an exquisite 25 yard shot that flew past Manley into the top corner.

Minutes later Elliot Sandy saw his effort from the edge of the area shave the far upright with Manley stranded, who then made a superb reflex save to deny sub Mark Janes and secure a point for the Terras.

"Although disappointed with the result, Hutch was full of praise of his player's endeavors."

"I can't fault their application and effort. Their ball retention could be better and they could improve their passing, but all in all it was satisfactory."

Hutch admitted they were still in the market for a couple more players. "The budget is very tight, but I would like to bring in a couple more if money will permit. I think it is healthy to have competition all over the field for places."

On his decision to change his strikers he said: "I think Warren did well when he came on against Swindon Supermarine and he adds an extra dimension that was missing, but as I say it is good to have competition so that players don't get too complacent."

He was also full of praise for the fans: "They are always brilliant and get behind the team. I think they understand our position and realise where we are at, and all they ask is that we all give 100 percent."

Symes ensures Bees bright start continues

SATURDAY, AUGUST 21ST

Toolstation Western League,
Division One
ROMAN GLASS ST GEORGE 0
BRIDPORT 2

Attendance: 35

the Toolstation Western League First Division.

Symes struck in each half to keep the Bees tucked in fifth place with three straight wins and inflict Roman Glass St George to their first home defeat of the season.

Manager Trevor Senior was pleased with his side's performance: "It was good to play them early in the season before their pitch got too bad. It was awful when we played them at the end of January last season."

"Whilst we didn't play as well as we can, we did the job. The score should have been more because we missed a lot of chances, but having said that we defended well again and kept a clean sheet."

"They had a couple of dangerous players, but we never really gave them any clear sights on goal except near the end when Adam Steele headed off the line."

Jamie Symes gave Bridport the start they wanted with a superb goal after 12 minutes, much akin to Chris Clarke's thunderbolt on the opening day against Bradford Town.

After exchanging passes with Ryan Dovell near the left hand angle of the home penalty box, Symes drove a rising shot across the goal and in off the underside of the bar.

Dovell, Dan Wise, Russell Legg and Jamie Symes all squandered opportunities as Bridport dictated play in the first half which ended with the sending off of Mitchell Ashmead, one of several Glass debutants, for head butting Wise.

"As often happens it is difficult to play against ten men," said Senior. "And, to be fair, they had a reasonable amount of possession in the first 20 minutes of the second half, but our numerical advantage took over again and we out pretty easy winners although it was nice to get the second to make it safe."

The second came three minutes from time after Shane Evans, who came on with 20 minutes to go, had missed two opportunities together with Jamie Symes and Dovell.

Symes showed his tenacity as he held up the ball near the corner flag playing for time. However when he lost the ball he tackled back to regain possession before cutting in from the bye line and scoring with a low acute shot across the keeper into the far corner.

Unbeaten in all competitions so far, Bridport's record could be tested in last night's home fixture with Oldland Abbotonians, one of the four unbeaten sides above the Bees at present on goal difference.

INSIDE: Comprehensive local sports news round-up

Weymouth safe but rain sends others down

ONLY five games survived the weekend weather, and for some of our local sides it signalled the end of their chances of avoiding relegation.

Ironically, one of the games to survive the was Beaminster 2nd XI's Division Four match at Child Okeford, where they won for the first time this season in impressive style by 10 wickets.

Adam Herring and Richard Runyard opened the bowling and produced two excellent spells.

Runyard's aggression coming down the hill was too much for the opposition's batsmen, taking two wickets for 31 off nine overs.

Herring finished with 4 for 31 from ten overs bowling up the hill, swinging the ball into the right handers and causing no end of problems.

The Beaminster innings saw Dan Hillier (35 not out) and Haycon Edgeley (32 not out) make the ttrack look a lot easier hitting 12 boundaries, including a six each.

BY STUART BROOM

Unfortunately it came too late for the side as they cannot save themselves regardless of results next week.

It does however mean that Weymouth's Premier Division place is assured, whilst Dorchester can do no better than to finish third in their quest for the title.

It is bad news all round in Beaminster with the relegation of the first team from Division One; the second consecutive year they have dropped a league. A victory against Corfe Mullen would have given them hope of avoiding relegation, but now they can only hope to beat Ferndown Wayfarers 2nds next week to leapfrog them and avoid the ignominy of bottom spot.

Bridport drop leagues for the fourth consecutive season. Having won their opening two games in Division Three, they have only tasted victory once more in their next 16 matches.

Good news is that both Weymouth 3rds and Dorchester 3rds have been promoted.

Pete Tucker's young Dorchester side were denied an opportunity to overhaul leaders Christchurch 2nds at the Rec last weekend, and will now almost certainly have to settle for second spot and promotion.

Weymouth are nip and tuck with Ferndown Wayfarers 3rds, leading by just 0.04 of a point and Joe Trevett's side just need to match the East Dorset side's points haul to win the title.

Whilst Bridport 2nds are now safe, Abbotsbury, who entertain Bridport 2nds in the final game, must match Blandford 3rds for points to avoid the drop.

● THE final of the Dorchester & District Evening Cricket League Under 18 Competition takes place this Friday (August 27th) at the Dorchester Rec at 5:45pm.

Unbeaten Cerne will try to defend their title against new opponents Weymouth in the competition sponsored by Bright Sparks.

◆ COUNTY CALL-UP | Lyme Regis youngster Daley Holmes has been selected to play for the Dorset County Under 9s cricket team. Daley (9), youngest son of Uplyme & Lyme Regis stalwart Rodney Holmes, was one of only two from the west of the county to make the final 12 that were selected from a group of 37 trialists at Wimborne. The team was due to face Devon at Cloakham Lawns in Axminster yesterday (Tuesday).
